Lauren Boebert (CO-03) Backgrounder

Significant Findings

- Lauren Boebert had a history of peddling dangerous conspiracy theories
  - Boebert expressed support for the QAnon conspiracy theory, which falsely alleged Trump was secretly fighting to bring down a “cabal of Satan-worshipping pedophiles that has infiltrated all levels of the US government and other elite institutions.” QAnon also promoted theories that coronavirus was not real and a plot to hurt President Trump’s reelection.

- Boebert consistently put her customers’ health and safety at risk
  - Boebert operated Shooter’s Grill, a gun themed restaurant that gained national attention when staffers began to openly carry loaded guns
  - In 2020, Boebert defied COVID-19 pandemic restrictions and continued to operate her restaurant even after she was issued a cease-and-desist order, resulting in a 30 day license suspension
  - In 2017, 80 people contracted a foodborne illness after they consumed food that was prepared by Smokehouse 1776—a entity owned by Boebert and associated with Shooters Grill

- Boebert has aligned herself with right-wing extremist hate groups, including the Proud Boys and the Three Percenters

- Boebert was a loyal Trump supporter, noting that she has supported him since day one

- Boebert was notorious for her staunch support of the 2nd Amendment and opposed most efforts aimed at reform

  - She made headlines when she confronted then-presidential candidate Beto O’Rourke and told him, “hell no, you won’t take our guns”

  - Boebert regularly practiced open carry—what she considered the most “extreme” way to carry

- Boebert opposed the Affordable Care Act and criticized Scott Tipton for failing to repeal it

- Boebert said “forced vaccination” was a problem, and she was for “medical freedom”

- Boebert has repeatedly stated that her number one priority was to become a member of the Freedom Caucus and stated that she met with multiple prominent Republicans, including Andy Biggs

Boebert Peddled Dangerous Conspiracy Theories

Boebert Was A Believer In The QAnon Conspiracy Theory

Boebert Appeared On The Show “Steel Truth,” Which Was Hosted By A QAnon Supporter

Boebert Appeared On The Show “Steel Truth,” Which Was Hosted By A QAnon Supporter. “Lauren Boebert is a Republican candidate running in Colorado’s 3rd Congressional District. She won the Republican primary on June 30 and thus will be on the ballot in November’s general election. She appeared on the online show Steel Truth, hosted by QAnon supporter Ann Vandersteel, during which Vandersteel asked her if she knew about ‘the Q movement.’” [Media Matters, 7/1/20]

Boebert: “I Hope That This [QAnon Theory] Is Real…It Could Be Really Great For Our Country”

Boebert: “I Hope That This [QAnon Theory] Is Real…It Could Be Really Great For Our Country”

Appearing on a radio program last month, she said of QAnon: ‘I hope that this is real because it only means America is getting stronger and better, and people are returning to conservative values, and that’s what I am for.’ ‘If this is real,’ she added, ‘then it could be really great for our country.’” [New York Times, 7/1/20]

Following Boebert’s Primary Win, Her Campaign Manager Denied That Boebert Was A QAnon Follower

Following Boebert’s Primary Win, Her Campaign Manager Denied That Boebert Was A QAnon Follower.

“In a statement to CNN Wednesday, campaign manager Sherronna Bishop denied Boebert was a follower of QAnon. ‘She’s very glad that the IG and the AG are investigating the Deep State,’ said Bishop. ‘She does not follow QAnon.’” [CNN, 7/1/20]

QAnon Promoted Theories That Coronavirus Was Not Real And A Plot To Hurt President Trump’s Reelection

QAnon Promoted Theories That Coronavirus Might Not Be Real And That It Was Part Of A Plot To Hurt President Trump’s Reelection. “Nine years later, as reports of a fearsome new virus suddenly emerged, and with Trump now president, a series of ideas began burbling in the QAnon community: that the coronavirus might not be real; that if it was, it had been created by the “deep state,” the star chamber of government officials and other elite figures who secretly run the world; that the hysteria surrounding the pandemic was part of a plot to hurt Trump’s reelection chances; and that media elites were cheering the death toll. Some of these ideas would make their way onto Fox News and into the president’s public utterances.” [Atlantic, 6/20]

Boebert Defied COVID-19 Pandemic Restrictions And Kept Her Restaurant Open, Despite Battles With Local Health Officials

| Boebert Defied Pandemic Restrictions And Kept Her Restaurant Open To Customers |
| Boebert Defied Pandemic Restrictions And Kept Her Restaurant Open. “Ms. Boebert, 33, is the owner of Shooters Grill in Rifle, Colo., and has gained attention in recent days for defying pandemic restrictions by keeping her restaurant open.” [New York Times, 7/1/20] |
| Boebert Served Customers In Outdoor Seating To Protest The Public Health Order That She Deemed Unfair. “Boebert had opened the restaurant, serving customers in outdoor seating, to protest the public health order in Colorado that she said unfairly targeted small businesses, like her restaurant, for closure while allowing big-box retailers to remain open.” [Durando Herald, 6/30/20] |
| Boebert: ‘How Is It Safer To Walk The Aisles Of Wal-Mart Than To Eat A Meal At Shooters Grill?’” “Garfield County authorities on Wednesday ordered the Rifle restaurant owned by Republican congressional candidate Lauren Boebert (R) to stop serving in-person diners after Boebert defied repeated law enforcement requests to comply with state rules intended to slow the coronavirus outbreak.’ Boebert is challenging Rep. Scott Tipton (R) in the June 30 Republican primary. Boebert said, ‘How is it safer to walk the aisles of Wal-Mart than to eat a meal at Shooters Grill? I’ve tried very hard to be safe, kind and courteous, but our livelihoods are on the line and we need to take action.”’ [Frontrunner, 5/15/20] |

The Garfield County Sherriff Obtained A Cease-And-Desist Order Against Boebert For Keeping Her Restaurant Open

| The Garfield County Sherriff Obtained A Cease-And-Desist Order Against Boebert For Keeping Her Restaurant Open. “More recently, Ms. Boebert defied state orders against opening her restaurant until the Garfield County sheriff obtained a cease-and-desist order against her.” [New York Times, 7/1/20] |
| Boebert Was Issued The Cease And Desist And Restraining Order After She Continued To Operate Her Business Outside. “Boebert, in her own protest, began serving customers inside her restaurant the weekend of May 9, in open violation of state and county public health orders that prevent restaurants from serving customers on-site in response to the COVID-19 outbreak in Colorado. Boebert has said she has been following CDC guidelines, including social distancing between customer tables, requiring wait staff to wear face coverings, and limiting her dining-in capacity to 30%. The county is now seeking a variance from the state to allow restaurants to open at 50% capacity, but a decision is not expected until later this week. Boebert was issued a cease and desist order on May 12, followed by the court’s temporary restraining order on May 13 after Boebert continued to operate, and later moving her table service to the adjacent sidewalk and parking area.” [Aspen Times, 5/18/20]

Shooters Grill Was Then Issued A 30-Day License Suspension For Failing To Obey The Law And Boebert Protested In Front Of The Health Department And Filed A Lawsuit

Shooters Grill Was Issued A 30-Day Restaurant License Suspension For Failing To Obey The Law. “Boebert owns Shooters Grill in Rifle, where servers also open-carry. Garfield County had issued a 30-day suspension of the restaurant’s license in mid-May after Boebert served customers in defiance of a state public health order and a court injunction.” [Durando Herald, 6/30/20]

Supporters Of Shooters Grill And Boebert Protested In Front Of The Health Department After The Restraining Order Was Placed On Shooters. “A temporary restraining order and a separate 30-day suspension of Shooters’ food service license ordered by the county on Friday remain in effect. That means Shooters is unable to operate in any capacity until the court lifts the restraining order and the restaurant license is reinstated by the county. The court continuance came as about 20 supporters of Boebert and Shooters protested in front of the county health department in Rifle.” [Aspen Times, 5/18/20]

Boebert: “My Goal Right Now Is Just To Get My License Back.” “A Rifle restaurant owner’s civil disobedience when it comes to following state and local health orders appears to have come to an end, at least for the time being, with her efforts now focused on getting Garfield County to reinstate her retail food establishment license. ‘My goal now is just to get my license back,’ Lauren Boebert, the owner of Shooters Grill, said Monday [Pols emphasis] The county filing seeking the restraining order indicates that the county had received multiple complaints about the restaurant being open for dine-in service, as well as an inquiry from another Rifle restaurant owner asking if it could open on-premises dining ‘since Shooters Grill was now open to the public.’” [State Capital Newsfeed, 5/19/20]

VIDEO: Boebert Stated She Signed Onto A Law Suit To Get Her Restaurant Back In Operation After Her License Was Revoked. “[1:05:00] Polis started restricting restaurant use before the stay at home orders. We complied with that, now we see that the country was shut down on speculation. We had about 20% of revenue coming in, that wasn’t enough. I started contacting my county commissioners. They said they had it under control. That was April 16th. May 4th came around and we found out they hadn’t submitted the variance. I had to take action again. I opened my restaurant to 30% capacity. They called public health to give a cease and desist in restaurant dining. So we went to the streets. They didn’t like that either, so they took our food license. So we signed on to a lawsuit. We just want to get to work.” [Patriots’ Soapbox News Network Archive, YouTube, 5/20/20]

2020: Boebert Held An In-Person Primary Watch Party At Her Restaurant, After Her Restaurant Was Shut Down For Defying COVID-19 Safety Orders. “The one campaign that told The Colorado Sun they are hosting an in-person primary watch party is that of Lauren Boebert, a Republican running to unseat incumbent U.S. Rep. Scott Tipton of Cortez. Boebert’s campaign says supporters will be gathering to watch the results roll in at a restaurant and bar in Grand Junction. Boebert’s own restaurant, Shooter’s Grill in Rifle, was shut down by Garfield County health officials after she reopened in defiance of coronavirus safety orders.” [The Journal, 6/30/20]

In 2017, 80 People Contracted A Food Borne Illness After They Consumed Food Prepared By An Entity Associated With Shooter’s Grill And Owned By Boebert

2017: The Garfield County Public Health Office Reported That An Unlicensed Food Vendor Associated With Shooters Grill Served Food At A Fair Where People Reported Food Poisoning

The Garfield County Public Health Office Reported That An Unlicensed Food Vendor Associated With Shooters Grill Served Food At A Fair Where People Reported Food Poisoning. “At approximately 1000 hours on the morning of Tuesday, June 6th, 2017 calls began coming into the Garfield County Public Health Rifle Office (970-625-5200) from people reporting illness involving symptoms of diarrhea and nausea. A total of 17 people called or walked in. The common denominator was people who had attended the Rifle Rodeo, a privately organized event which rented at the Garfield County fairgrounds indoor arena on the evening of June 5th 2017, and consumed food that was provided. The only temporary food vendor reported present at the rodeo was an unlicensed temporary retail food establishment associated with Shooter’s Grill, a retail food establishment located in downtown Rifle, Colorado.” [Garfield County Public Health, Rife Rodeo Outbreak Report, accessed 7/1/20]

An Environmental Investigation Conducted By GCPH Concluded That The Pork Served At The Fair Was Cooked At Smokehouse 1776, An Establishment That Was Owned By Boebert

On the morning of June 7th, the collaborating investigation partners held a conference call at 1000 hours. The environmental investigation conducted by GCPH on the afternoon of June 6th revealed that the pork served at the rodeo was smoked at Smokehouse 1776, a retail food establishment located in downtown Rifle, Colorado across the street from Shooter’s Grill and owned by the same person as Shooter’s Grill. Also, one of the employees serving food at the temporary event also became symptomatic.” [Garfield County Public Health, Rife Rodeo Outbreak Report, accessed 7/1/20]

An Investigation Into How The Suspect Food Was Prepared Revealed Multiple Food Safety Concerns And Violations

Food safety practices at the temporary event (Rifle Rodeo) were discussed with owner and employees. Food safety concerns and violations were revealed during this discussion and include no cold holding, no hot holding the facility does not maintain temperature logs so there was no way of showing the food was kept at proper temperatures, bare hand contacts with ready to eat foods, no handwashing station, no barrier protection form insects, only one pair of tongs on sire, no event coordinator paperwork completed prior to the event occurrence, and no temporary retail good establishment license was applied for or obtained by the persons serving food at the rodeo.” [Garfield County Public Health, Rife Rodeo Outbreak Report, accessed 7/1/20]

Approximately 80 People Fell Ill After Eating Food Prepared By Smokehouse

“Additional calls to GCPH had increased, an additional 38 people reported illness. Call logs of the reported ill now approximately 80 individuals, however GCPH has been able to directed contact and conduct full interviews for 17 of those reporting.” [Garfield County Public Health, Rife Rodeo Outbreak Report, accessed 7/1/20]

Lauren Boebert Did Not Obtain An Approval Or Licensing To Serve Food At The Rodeo, And Appeared To Obtain A License Only After The Incident Occurred

“After the initial calls in to the health department on the morning of June 6th, Billy Harkins, EHS III contacted the owner of Shooter’s Grill an Smokehouse 1776, Lauren Boebert. He began gathering information on their operations at the Rifle Rodeo. GCPH learned that Lauren Boebert did not obtain approval or licensing to serve food at the Rodeo. Approval would have required them to obtain a Temporary Retail Food Establishment License.” [Garfield County Public Health, Rife Rodeo Outbreak Report, accessed 7/1/20]

Following The Reports, Boebert Applied For A Temporary Retail Food Establishment License, But It Was Not Approved As Of The Report.

“Lauren Boebert applied for a temporary retail food establishment license on June 8th, 2017, but has not yet been approved as of yet by GCPH pending completion of the Rifle Rodeo Outbreak investigation. [Garfield County Public Health, Rife Rodeo Outbreak Report, accessed 7/1/20]

Data Showed That The Cause Of The Food Poisoning Was Most Likely Due To A Toxic Bacteria Found In Pork Sliders

36 Of 38 People Reported Eating Sliders Became Ill—Suggesting That The Sliders Were The Likely Culprit Of The Illness. “The following 2x2 tables summarize data collected during interviews: 36 of 38 who reported eating sliders became ill; all 36 of those ill reported eating sliders, suggesting the sliders as the most likely culprit.” [Garfield County Public Health, Rife Rodeo Outbreak Report, accessed 7/1/20]

Results From Samples Showed That Those Who Fell Ill Tested Positive For Clostridium Perfringens—A Leading Cause Of Foodborne Illness. “On June 14th, Alicia Cronquist, CDPHE laboratory reported that the two samples of the people that ate and got sick showed positive for Clostridium perfringens. The samples tested positive for the toxin that the germ produces. C perfringens is a leading cause of foodborne illness. […] Illness with C. perfringens occurs when food is left as an unsafe temperatures, the number of bacteria present in the food can double every fifteen minutes.” [Garfield County Public Health, Rife Rodeo Outbreak Report, accessed 7/1/20]

While The Food Samples Did Not Test Positive For The Bacteria, The Report Noted That A Negative Lab Result Does Not Exonerate A Particular Food Item. “The positive lab test results led the CDPHE lab to decide to next also test the food samples for C. perfringens. The results of the food samples came back negative for the bacteria toxin. According to Alicia Cronquist, CDPHE, food testing takes time, sometimes longer than planned. Food testing is not 100% sensitive; this means even when a particular food caused an outbreak it does not always test positive, put another way, a negative lab results does not exonerate a particular food item.” Garfield County Public Health, Rife Rodeo Outbreak Report, accessed 7/1/20]

The Report Concluded That The Outbreak Was Caused By The Consumption Of Pork Sliders That Were Prepared By An Unlicensed Temporary Retail Food Establishment

Ultimately, The Report Concluded That The Outbreak Was Caused By The Consumption Of Pork Sliders That Were Prepared By An Unlicensed Temporary Retail Food Establishment. “The Investigative Team determined the outbreak to be the result of food poisoning by the bacterium Clostridium perfringens due to consumption of the pork sliders provided to the public by an unlicensed temporary retail food establishment at the Rifle Rodeo on the night of June 5th, 2017. The evidence supported the conclusion that bacterial contamination was due to improper food safety practices of the unlicensed food providers.” Garfield County Public Health, Rife Rodeo Outbreak Report, accessed 7/1/20]
Boebert Released An Editorial Denying That Her Food Made People Sick And Stated That Many People Were “Misled” By The Report

Boebert Released An Editorial Denying That Her Food Made People Sick And Stated That Many People Were “Misled” By The Report. “I am sorry so many people have been misled by bits and pieces of stories that were released in an excitement to create some sort of ‘news’ in our uneventful area. There were dozens of people who were affected with the same symptoms that did not eat any of the food provided the night of the rodeo. There were only two confirmed stool samples that returned with bacteria, and the health inspector told me both samples were very improperly handled. It’s sad that our local paper can turn two confirmed cases into ‘80.’ There are many more people who ate the same food and did not experience any symptoms. The health inspector communicated with me on multiple occasions concerning the level of filth that was on the grandstands at the fairgrounds, mainly mentioning fecal matter.” [Post Independent, Lauren Boebert Editorial, 7/19/17]

The Rally Was Expected To Be Attended By Groups Of Fringe Militia Groups And White Supremacists, But Concluded Uneventfully

The Rally Was Expected To Be Attended By Groups Of Fringe Militia Groups And White Supremacists, But Concluded Uneventfully. “Thousands of gun-rights activists from around the country rallied peacefully at the Virginia Capitol on Monday, protesting plans by the state’s Democratic leadership to pass gun-control legislation that have become a key flash point in the national debate over gun violence. The size of the crowd and the expected participation of white supremacists and fringe militia groups raised fears that the state could see a repeat of the violence that exploded in 2017 in Charlottesville. But the rally concluded uneventfully around noon, and the mood was largely festive, with rally-goers chanting ‘USA!’ and waving signs denouncing Democratic Gov. Ralph Northam.” [Politico, 1/20/20]

Boebert Helped Organize The “We Will Not Comply” Rally In Colorado That Was Attended By Extremist Hate Groups

Boebert Organized A Rally To Protest Colorado’s New Red Flag Law That Allowed Guns To Be Taken Away From Those Who Were A Threat To Themselves Or Others

Boebert Organized A Rally To Protest Colorado’s New Red Flag Law That Allowed Guns To Be Taken Away From Those Who Were A Threat To Themselves Or Others. “Approximately two hundred people rallied at the state Capitol Saturday against Colorado’s new ‘red flag’ law, which allows guns to be taken from people deemed a threat to themselves or others. Organizers of the ‘We Will Not Comply’ rally included Rally For Our Rights activist Lesley Hollywood, conservative Facebook personality Sheronna Bishop, and gun rights activist Lauren Boebert, who just launched her campaign[1] for Colorado’s Third Congressional District, where she will challenge incumbent U.S. Rep. Scott Tipton in the Republican primary.” [State Capital Newsfeed, 12/10/19]

The Rally Was Attended By Hate Groups Like The Three Percenters And The Proud Boys, Who Have Been Designated As Hate Groups By The SPLC

The Rally Was Attended By Hate Groups Like The Three Percenters And The Proud Boys. “Conservative activist Sherronna Bishop, who runs a Facebook page called ‘America’s Mom,’ emceed the event. She thanked two groups for providing security: Boots On The Ground Bikers For Trump, and the Three Percenters. Lauren Boebert poses w/ members of American Patriots III% and Bikers For Trump The Southern Poverty Law Center (SPLC) lists a number of ‘three percent’ anti-government extremist groups in Colorado, including the American Patriots III%, which provided security. Also among the attendees were members of the Proud Boys, which is designated as a hate group by the SPLC.” [State Capital Newsfeed, 12/10/19]
The Proud Boys Were A Designated Hate Group By The Southern Poverty Law Center. “Their disavowals of bigotry are belied by their actions: rank-and-file Proud Boys and leaders regularly spout white nationalist memes and maintain affiliations with known extremists. They are known for anti-Muslim and misogynistic rhetoric. Proud Boys have appeared alongside other hate groups at extremist gatherings like the ‘Unite the Right’ rally in Charlottesville. Indeed, former Proud Boys member Jason Kessler helped to organize the event, which brought together Klansmen, antisemites, Southern racists, and militias. Kessler was only ‘expelled’ from the group after the violence and near-universal condemnation of the Charlottesville rally-goers.” [Southern Poverty Law Center, accessed 7/2/20]

The Three Percenters Were A Far-Right Militia Group. “Founded in 2008, the Three Percent movement takes its name from the idea that only 3 percent of American colonists took up arms against the British. Members fashion themselves as today’s version of those rebels. On its website, the overarching Three Percent group insists it’s not a militia, nor is its aim to overthrow the government. Instead, the goal is, ‘to utilize the fail-safes put in place by our founders to reign in an overreaching government and push back against tyranny.’ The loosely organized group rose to national prominence when some of its self-identified members provided security to alt-right rallies around the country. Heavily armed Three Percenters were photographed in military-style combat gear guarding the perimeter of last year’s white supremacist Unite the Right rally in Charlottesville, Virginia.” [Reveal News, 3/16/18]

Who do you admire politically? 02:44- LB: I admire and respect, our president, Donald Trump. He is disrupting the narrative, disrupting the way things work and I like it. He has been making all of these left wing people squirm. They try to dismantle his presidency and he keeps fighting for the American people, and that is what it is all about.” [Next 9News, YouTube, 12/9/19]
Boebert Failed To Answer If She Thought It Was Appropriate For Trump To Ask A Foreign Government To Investigate A Political Rival

VIDEO: Boebert Failed To Answer If She Thought It Was Appropriate For Trump To Ask A Foreign Government To Investigate A Political Rival. “[6:54] Male Interviewee: Do you believe it was appropriate for Trump to ask a foreign government to investigate a political rival? 07:00- LB: There is going to be a lot of time for policies, right now, I would just love... I think we are making this too difficult. This is really simple, we are announcing my campaign, we just started, and we will have a lot of time to talk about policy, and honestly, I just need a lot of help, I need a lot of support from grassroots Americans who are willing to give what they can to help us win this fight. I am tired of politicians shying away from issues and fights that need to be won and I intend to win them. And if Americans like me intent to win them, then I encourage them to go to laurenforcolorado.com.” [Next 9News, YouTube, 12/9/19]

Maybe he should protect the most innocent of lives, if lives is really what he’s really concerned about. Let’s start with the womb, let’s start with protecting those babies right there.” [Breitbart Interview, accessed 7/1/20]
Boebert Opposed A Comprehensive Sex Education Bill Passed By The State Legislature, Stating That It Sexualized Children

VIDEO: Boebert Opposed The Comprehensive Sex Education Bill Passed By The State Legislature. “[3:13] Well, last year in Colorado, we saw one of the worst legislative sessions that we have ever experienced. We have Governor Jared Polis in office with a Democrat super majority. And they were doing everything they can from comprehensive sex ed, really sexualizing our children, as young as 8 years old. Giving them permission, basically, to be sexualized.” [Revolution Network, 5/21/20]

2019: The Colorado State Legislature Passed The Comprehensive Human Sexuality Education Act, Which Focused On Consent And The Needs Of LGBTQ People. “Comprehensive human sexuality education - content requirements - grant program - appropriation. The act adds certain content requirements for public schools that offer comprehensive human sexuality education, including instruction on consent as it relates to safe and healthy relationships and safe haven laws. The act prohibits instruction from emphasizing sexual abstinence as the primary or sole acceptable preventive method available to students and prohibits instruction from explicitly or implicitly using shame-based or stigmatizing language or instructional tools; employing gender stereotypes; or excluding the health needs of lesbian, gay, bisexual, or transgender individuals. If a public school teaches comprehensive human sexuality education, the public school is not required to include instruction on pregnancy outcome options. However, if a public school opts to provide instruction on pregnancy outcome options, it must cover all pregnancy outcome options available.” [Colorado General Assembly, 5/31/19]

Boebert Said That Abortion Was The Leading Cause Of Death In America

VIDEO: Boebert Said That Abortion Was The Leading Cause Of Death In America. “[24:18] Really, if any of this was about saving lives, I think we would start with abortion. I am pro-life and I have said many times that Planned Parenthood should go fund themselves. But that is the leading cause of death in America, its not heart disease like the CDC says, with 640,000+ lives lost a year to heart disease. Its abortion at sometimes a million lives a year.” [Revolution Network, 5/21/20]

Boebert Criticized Tipton For “Funding” Planned Parenthood

VIDEO: Boebert Criticized Tipton For “Funding” Planned Parenthood. “[6:18] There was a lot in reference to spending, planned parenthood funding, abortions, not conservative values. I believe my constituents will sleep well at night knowing that I will check off every conservative check box and I want them to hold me accountable for that. 06:38- Male Interviewee: You believe Tipton voted to fund Planned Parenthood? 06:42- LB: He didn’t vote to unfund or defund them.” [Next 9News, YouTube, 12/9/19]

Budget & Spending Issues

Boebert Stated She Would Only Vote For A Balanced Budget

Boebert Stated She Would Only Vote For A Balanced Budget. “In Congress, I won’t vote in favor of any budgets unless they balance in a reasonable amount of time; our national debt is unsustainable.” [Aspen Times, Lauren Boebert Op-Ed, 6/26/20]
Boebert Criticized Tipton For Voting For Bipartisan Spending Bills That Prevented A Government Shutdown And Provided COVID-19 Relief Aid

Boebert Criticized Tipton For Voting For A $1.4 Trillion Spending Bill Last Fall And A $250 Billion Federal Bailout Bill

Boebert Criticized Tipton For Voting For A $1.4 Trillion Spending Bill Last Fall And A $250 Billion Federal Bailout Bill. “I share the examples above because my Republican primary opponent, Congressman Scott Tipton, has failed on all of the above. During Mr. Tipton’s 10 years in Congress he has shown a consistent instinct to run from core conservative positions, including: • Voting for a 2,200 page, $1.4 trillion spending bill filled with waste and debt last fall when our economy was running on all cylinders. Joining AOC’s Squad to co-sponsor a $250 billion federal bailout of cities like Boulder, without constraint on their liberal-spending ways.” [Aspen Times, Lauren Boebert Op-Ed, 6/26/20]

2020: Tipton Co-Sponsored The Bipartisan Bill That Provided $250 Billion To Communities Affected By COVID-19

2020: Tipton Co-Sponsored The Bipartisan Bill That Provided $250 Billion To Communities Affected By COVID-19. “On Tuesday, April 7, members of the U.S. House of Representatives — including Rep. Joe Neguse, of Colorado’s 2nd Congressional District — introduced the Coronavirus Community Relief Act, which aims to provide $250 billion for communities affected by the COVID-19 pandemic. […] Since Tuesday, Neguse said the bill has gained 108 co-sponsors. He said it is the most co-sponsors he has gotten on a bill within that timeframe. On Monday, Republican Sen. Scott Tipton signed on.” [Summit Daily, 4/13/20]

2019: The $1.4 Trillion Spending Bill Was A Bipartisan Bill That Prevented A Government Shutdown

2019: The $1.4 Trillion Spending Bill Was A Bipartisan Bill That Prevented A Government Shutdown. “The House on Tuesday approved a $1.4 trillion spending package that would stave off a looming shutdown and fund the federal government through September, acting in a burst of bipartisanship just a day before Democrats plan to impeach President Trump. […] The year-end legislative frenzy, which came ahead of the divisive impeachment vote in the House, showed how far both parties have moved since last year, when a spending fight led to a 35-day government shutdown. This time, both parties reverted to a hallowed congressional tradition of embracing an enormous year-end spending bill. Each side made concessions to secure long-sought funding.” [Washington Post, 12/17/19]

Boebert Attacked Scott Tipton For Supporting The CARES Act Because It Expanded Visas For Immigrant Workers

Boebert Attacked Scott Tipton For Supporting The CARES Act Because It Expanded Visas For Immigrant Workers. “‘I’m tired of compromise and I believe that the American people are tired of compromise. It’s never enough for the people on the left. We compromise with them far too much, and they always want more,’ she told CPR, specifically attacking Tipton’s votes in favor of the CARES Act and a bill that would have expanded visas for immigrant farmworkers.” [Business Insider, 6/30/20]

AUDIO: Boebert: “These Mask Rules Are Absolutely Ridiculous.” [21:05] You know, these mask rules are absolutely ridiculous. Unfortunately, with my restaurant, my staff has had to comply with them, but were not making our customers wear them, I mean, come on. We are a restaurant, there are ridiculous seating guidelines that we have to follow all the time.” [REAL Patriot News, 6/10/20]

Boebert Criticized Those Who Were Quick To Go Against The Use Of Hydroxychloroquine

Boebert Criticized Those Who Were Quick To Go Against The Use Of Hydroxychloroquine. “President Donald Trump’s decision to tell the world he was taking hydroxychloroquine during the coronavirus pandemic sparked the kind of concern and backlash one would expect over a treatment that packs the chance of having deadly side effects. […] In an interview, Lauren Boebert, a Republican congressional candidate in Colorado running to the right of GOP incumbent Scott Tipton, criticized those who were quick to go against the treatment. ‘With the way the media hates President Trump, if taking hydroxychloroquine was truly bad for him, they’d be encouraging it rather than having a meltdown,’ Boebert tweeted on May 20.” [Daily Beast, 5/23/20]

Boebert Said She Was Not Taking The Drug Because She Was “Not At Risk For Coronavirus”

Boebert Said She Was Not Taking The Drug Because She Was “Not At Risk For Coronavirus.” “Neither Bradley, Webber or Boebert are taking the drug, they told The Daily Beast. ‘No I am not taking it,’ Bradley said in an email. ‘However, if I were to contract the virus I would consult my physician first and have no fear if it was prescribed to me.’ ‘I’m not at risk for coronavirus,’ Boebert added, before saying she was standing with the president and his ‘medical freedom.’” [Daily Beast, 5/23/20]

Boebert Opposed The TRACE Act—Which Provided Comprehensive COVID Testing—and Said That Illegal Immigrants Would Probably Be Exempt From The Act

The TRACE Act Aimed To Give Grants For Testing And Monitoring Of COVID-19

The TRACE Act Aimed To Give Grants For Testing And Monitoring Of COVID-19. “This bill authorizes the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) to award grants for testing, contact tracing, monitoring, and other activities to address COVID-19 (i.e., coronavirus disease 2019). Entities such as federally qualified health centers, nonprofit organizations, and certain hospitals and schools are eligible to receive such grants. In awarding the grants, the CDC shall prioritize applicants that (1) operate in hot spots and medically underserved communities, and (2) agree to hire individuals from the communities where grant activities occur.” [H.R. 6666, 5/1/20]

Boebert Opposed The Red Flag Gun Bill Passed By The Colorado State Legislature

Boebert Stated That The “Red Flag Gun Bill” Passed By The Colorado Legislature Pushed Her To Run

Boebert Stated That The “Red Flag Gun Bill” Passed By The Colorado Legislature Pushed Her To Run. “In an interview with The Colorado Sun, Boebert said that the laws passed by Democrats in Colorado’s 2019 legislative session were also a big part of her decision to run. She felt that Titпон was not vocal enough in opposing those measures, including the red flag gun bill. ‘If I felt that we were being represented properly, I would not have stepped up to run for this position,’ she said.” [The Journal, 12/9/19]
Colorado’s Red Flag Gun Bill Allowed A Judge To Remove A Firearm From Someone Who Was Considered A Danger To Themselves Or Others

Colorado’s Red Flag Gun Bill Allowed A Judge To Remove A Firearm From Someone Who Was Considered A Danger To Themselves Or Others. “COLORADO GOV. JARED Polis on Friday signed into law a bill that will give judges the power to take firearms from people they believe are at a high risk of harming themselves or others, making Colorado the 15th state to adopt a "red flag" law. [...] Supporters say the measure could help prevent suicides, mass shootings and other acts of gun violence while opponents argue that the new law will violate citizens’ Second Amendment rights. The law is set to take effect Jan. 1, according to The Denver Post. ‘This law will not prevent every shooting, but it can be used in a targeted way,’ Polis said Friday, according to The Denver Post. ‘Today we may be saving the life of your nephew, your niece, your grandchild.’” [US News, 4/12/19]

We support our President, I love my President, and I implore him, please protect our second amendment. We elected you to do just that. We don’t want anything inched away, because every little thing that is on the chopping block eventually lead to no ownership of firearms in America.” [DC Examiner, YouTube, 9/21/19]

Boebert Said Most Gun Measures Were “Crazy”

Boebert Said Most Gun Measures Were “Crazy.” “Lauren Boebert calls most gun measures “crazy,” but she is not skeptical about the ability of the American people to rise above division, on this and other issues. ‘Right now, we’re using our rights to tear each other apart,’ she says, passionately. ‘Freedom of speech, it’s just being used to say whatever mean, harmful, violent thing you can. ... That’s not what it’s for. You also have the freedom to lift them up and to hold them up and edify them. Let’s come together, let’s unify as Americans, all of us.’” [Telegram & Gazette, 10/26/16]

Boebert Wanted To Lower The Costs Of Health Care By Allowing It To Be Sold Across State Lines. “Advocating for the Second Amendment has been the focus of local restaurant-owner Boebert’s campaign, but she has told the Herald in the past that she would work to lower the cost of health insurance by ‘allowing it to be sold across state lines.’” [Durango Herald, 4/5/20]

Sales Across State Lines Would Increase Premiums And Reduce Access For Those With Health Problems

Sales Across State Lines Would Increase Premiums And Reduce Access For Those With Health Problems. “Sales across state lines would reduce premiums for those who are healthy at a given time while increasing premiums and reducing access to coverage for those with current or past health problems. Insurers would also be reluctant to offer comprehensive insurance policies in the nongroup market. The approach seriously underestimates the value of access to adequate, affordable coverage over time as individuals’ health care needs change.” [Urban Institute, June 2016]

Insurers Have Already Tried To Sell Across State Lines And It Does Not Reign In Costs. “Trump’s health plan would ‘modify existing law that inhibits the sale of health insurance across state lines,’ the campaign’s web site says. ‘By allowing full competition in this market, insurance costs will go down and consumer satisfaction will go up,’ the proposal states. But insurers can already do this in some states, and it hasn’t reigned in costs because analysts say it’s not so much a regulatory problem in the first place as the Republican presidential candidate suggests, according to analyses of Trump’s health plan.” [Forbes, 10/10/16]

LB: I think, first and foremost, communities are a huge source there. Free markets make all the difference. We see a large homeless population in dem cities, and we need communities to work on it. It shouldn’t be a government issue. Community banks should make loans easier to get for the people that are right there close to home. Even our churches have been over regulated. Tancredo emphasized Boebert’s willingness to enforce immigration laws and tighten the U.S. border with Mexico. ‘When a leading advocate in Congress for strong borders says he is going to endorse me, that says a lot,’ Boebert told The Durango Herald.” [Durango Herald, 1/30/20]

Boebert Pledged To Help President Trump Build The Wall

Boebert Pledged To Help President Trump Build The Wall. “I’m going to win the Republican primary because I’m the true conservative in this race. Mr. Tipton has voted alongside Nancy Pelosi far too often, granting millions amnesty, wasting billions of taxpayer dollars, and cuddling up to the likes of Jared Polis to push green new deal types of energy schemes. I’m motivated by freedom, will defend the Constitution and fight for our conservative principles every day I’m in Congress. Boebert Said That Borders Were A Top Priority For Her And Opposed The Farm Workers Modernization Act.

Boebert said secure borders are a top priority for her, and that Tipton should not have voted in support of the Farm Workers Modernization Act, which provides temporary legal status to agricultural workers who entered the country illegally to fill a growing need for seasonal workers in the state. [Durango Herald, 1/30/20]

Boebert Criticized Tipton For “Joining Democrats To Hand Amnesty To 1 Million Illegal Immigrants.”

Boebert also criticized Tipton’s voting record, specifically the Dec. 11 vote to support the Farm Workforce Modernization Act as an example of the congressman’s more liberal politics than the average GOP House member. She characterized the vote as Tipton joining “Democrats to hand amnesty to 1 million illegal immigrants.” The bill, however, does not provide a path to legal U.S. citizenship for farmworkers in the country illegally. It does provide a path for them to gain legal residency. [Durango Herald, 1/2/20]

Boebert Said That Tipton Voted To Spend A Billion Dollars On Housing For Illegal Immigrants.

Instead of demanding a secure border first, Scott Tipton undermined President Trump’s efforts by voting alongside Nancy Pelosi and every other Democrat to hand amnesty to millions of illegal immigrants and spend a billion of our taxpayer dollars to pay for their housing. [Aspen Times, Lauren Boebert Op-Ed, 6/26/20]

Tipton Was One Of 34 Republicans Who Voted For The Bill.

Tipton was one of 34 Republicans who voted for the Farm Workforce Modernization Act. The bill passed the full House 260-165. Tipton’s staff issued a statement about his support for the Farm Workforce Modernization Act, but efforts to reach Tipton for this story were unsuccessful. [...] About the Farm Workforce Modernization Act, Tipton’s statement read: ‘The House took a step toward improving how farmers retain seasonal, law-abiding migrant workers who meet specific and stringent requirements when it passed the Farm Workforce Modernization Act. The agricultural community overwhelmingly relies on a predictable flow of low-skilled employees each year who work hard to put food on our tables.’ He added: ‘What the bill does not do is grant citizenship to these seasonal workers, regardless of what some misleading reports are saying. This bill is NOT an amnesty bill. Instead, this legislation modernizes the process which migrant workers use to enter the U.S. legally.’” [Durango Herald, 1/2/20]

Boebert Encouraged Employees Of Her Restaurant To Open Carry Guns. “She previously grabbed headlines for confronting a former Democratic presidential candidate, Beto O’Rourke, over his pledge during an appearance in the state to seize assault rifles. ‘I am here to say: Hell, no, you’re not,’ Ms. Boebert, who encourages employees in her restaurant to openly carry guns, told him during a town-hall meeting in Aurora. Gun rights have been at the center of the state’s political clashes for years after new restrictions imposed after mass shootings.” [New York Times, 7/1/20]

Boebert: “She opened Shooter’s Grill, a restaurant in Rifle, despite city officials dissuading her from doing so because other restaurants in the area were failing, Boebert said. And after a violent fight in the alley behind her restaurant, she realized she needed to begin expressly advocating for the Second Amendment. ‘There was an altercation in our back alley where a man was physically beaten to death, and it immediately prompted the question, “How will I defend my people?” So I began to carry that day,’ Boebert said. ‘A few weeks later, some of my waitresses asked if they could carry, as well, and they already had their conceal carry permits and had their guns in their purses, and we all agreed that none of us were comfortable having our guns unattended in our purses in the back, so they began to carry, as well.”’” [Durango Herald, 12/9/19]

Boebert: “Recalling the chain of events, Lauren said: ‘There was an altercation in our back alley that ended with a man losing his life so I began to look into getting a concealed weapon permit so I could start carrying. ‘I learned that in Colorado you do not need a permit to open carry so I took my gun to work the next day. ‘Now all of the waitresses openly wear guns and carry dangerous hollow-point bullets - which are designed to cause maximum damage to a potential attacker by expanding on impact.’”’” [MailOnline, 1/25/15]

Boebert On Potential Accidents That Could Occur With Loaded Guns In Her Restaurant: “I Mean—There’s No Such Thing These Days.” “Yes, of course. We have safeties. I mean, guns nowadays or firearms are manufactured great. The holsters, they cover your trigger. You know, there are no accidents that are going to happen. I mean -- there’s no such thing these days. We do keep them holsters and no reason a waitress is ever allowed to unholster. If something did happen, we are not anticipating an attack. We do not expect it.” [CNN, 7/2/14]

A CNN Reporter Pushed Back On Boebert’s Claim That Accidents No Longer Happen But Boebert Insisted That An Accident Would Not Occur. “BALDWIN: Let me back up to one of your points. Sadly, I’ve done this job way too many times to say accidents do happen. There are bad people out there. Lauren, I have to push you on that point because I realize that this is legal. You have the best of intentions and you have these gun, safeties, in these holsters but what if. You have to play out the scenario of a criminal walking in, going for the gun. It’s just attached to the holster by a snap, what about kids grabbing a gun. BOEBERT: There’s a locking mechanism where you can only pull them out at certain angles and even then that would be in an intense situation where there are many people around and not just a single waitress who has her hands tied and can’t do anything to defend herself. BALDWIN: OK. BOEBERT: So and kids do not reach for them. They don’t come near them. I have four boys myself and the ones who are old enough to hold a firearm, they’re actually being trained how to properly do that so there is no ignorance when they start shooting and get older and start going out on their own. BALDWIN: I understand your kids are and maybe not all kids are, but let me move on to my final point.” [CNN, 7/2/14]

The Restaurant Partnered With Legal Heat To Offer Tactical Training. “Beginning with a small staff, Boebert initially did not offer or require any gun safety training, asking only that servers all of whom had concealed carry permits keep their guns holstered at all times unless the situation dictates otherwise. But as Shooters grew and became a more popular tourist destination, the Boeberts began partnering with Legal Heat, a national concealed firearms training company, to provide an additional level of firearm safety instruction. ‘Accidents happen by being careless or ignorant,’ Lauren Boebert said. ‘Either people don’t know what they’re doing or they think they know everything.’ Legal Heat offers Shooters employees tactical and concealed weapons training, along with weapon retention tactics and target practice. In addition to monthly training and safety sessions, waitstaffers use and practice with holsters designed to prevent the gun from being removed from behind by a third party.” [Denver Post, 6/24/18]

2017: 80 People Reported Contracting Food Poisioning After They Consumed Food That Was Prepared By An Entity Associated With Shooter’s Grill And Owned By Boebert

The Garfield County Public Health Office Reported That An Unlicensed Food Vendor Associated With Shooters Grill Served Food At A Fair Where People Reported Food Poisoning. “At approximately 1000 hours on the morning of Tuesday, June 6th, 2017 calls began coming into the Garfield County Public Health Rifle Office (970-625-5200) from people reporting illness involving symptoms of diarrhea and nausea. A total of 17 people called or walked in. The common denominator was people who had attended the Rifle Rodeo, a privately organized event which rented at the Garfield County fairgrounds indoor arena on the evening of June 5th 2017, and consumed food that was provided. The only temporary food vendor reported present at the rodeo was an unlicensed temporary retail food establishment associated with Shooter’s Grill, a retail food establishment located in downtown Rifle, Colorado.” [Garfield County Public Health, Rife Rodeo Outbreak Report, accessed 7/1/20]

An Environmental Investigation Conducted By GCPH Concluded That The Pork Served At The Fair Was Cooked At Smokehouse 1776, m Established That Was Owned By Boebert. “On the morning of June 7th, the collaborating investigation partners held a conference call at 1000 hours. The environmental investigation conducted by GCPH on the afternoon of June6th revealed that the pork served at the rodeo was smoked at Smokehouse 1776, a retail food establishment located in downtown Rifle, Colorado across the street from Shooter’s Grill and owned by the same person as Shooter’s Grill. Also, one of the employees serving food at the temporary event also became symptomatic.” [Garfield County Public Health, Rife Rodeo Outbreak Report, accessed 7/1/20]
An Investigation Into How The Suspect Good Was Prepared Revealed Multiple Food Safety Concerns And Violations. Food safety practices at the temporary event (Rifle Rodeo) were discussed with owner and employees. Food safety concerns and violations were revealed during this discussion and include no cold holding, no hot holding the facility does not maintain temperature logs so there was no way of showing the food was kept at proper temperatures, bare hand contacts with ready to eat foods, no handwashing station, no barrier protection form insects, only one pair of tongs on sire, no event coordinator paperwork completed prior to the event occurrence, and no temporary retail good establishment license was applied for or obtained by the persons serving food at the rodeo.” [Garfield County Public Health, Rife Rodeo Outbreak Report, accessed 7/1/20]

Approximately 80 Individuals Fell Ill After Eating Food Prepared By Smokehouse. “Additional calls to GCPH had increased, an additional 38 people reported illness. Call logs of the reported ill now approximately 80 individuals, however GCPH has been able to directed contact and conduct full interviews for 17 of those reporting.” [Garfield County Public Health, Rife Rodeo Outbreak Report, accessed 7/1/20]

Following The Reports, Boebert Applied For A Temporary Retail Food Establishment License, But It Was Not Approved As Of The Report. “Lauren Boebert applied for a temporary retail food establishment license on June 8th, 2017, but has not yet been approved as of yet by GCPH pending completion of the Rifle Rodeo Outbreak investigation. Results From Samples Showed That Those Who Fell Ill Tested Positive For Clostridium Perfringens—a Leading Cause Of Foodborne Illness. “On June 14th, Alicia Cronquist, CDPHE laboratory reported that the two samples of the people that ate and got sick showed positive for Clostridium perfringens. The samples tested positive for the toxin that the germ produces. C perfringens is a leading cause of foodborne illness. [...] Illness with C. perfringens occurs when food is left as an unsafe temperatures, the number of bacteria present in the food can double every fifteen minutes.” [Garfield County Public Health, Rife Rodeo Outbreak Report, accessed 7/1/20]

While The Food Samples Did Not Test Positive For The Bacteria, The Report Noted That A Negative Lab Result Does Not Exonerate A Particular Food Item. “The positive lab test results led the CDPHE lab to decide to next also test the food samples for C. perfringens. The results of the food samples came back negative for the bacteria toxin. According to Alicia Cronquist, CDPHE, food testing takes time, sometimes longer than planned. Food testing is not 100% sensitive; this means even when a particular food caused an outbreak it does not always test positive, put another way, a negative lab results does not exonerate a particular food item.” Garfield County Public Health, Rife Rodeo Outbreak Report, accessed 7/1/20

Lauren Boebert Did Not Obtain An Approval Or Licensing To Serve Food At The Rodeo. “After the initial calls in to the health department on the morning of June 6th, Billy Harkins, EHS III contacted the owner of Shooter’s Grill an Smokehouse 1776, Lauren Boebert. He began gathering information on their operations at the Rifle Rodeo. GCPh learned that Lauren Boebert did not obtain approval or licensing to serve food at the Rodeo. Approval would have required them to obtain a Temporary Retail Food Establishment License.” Garfield County Public Health, Rife Rodeo Outbreak Report, accessed 7/1/20

Ultimately, The Report Concluded That The Outbreak Was Caused By The Consumption Of Pork Sliders That Were Prepared By An Unlicensed Temporary Retail Food Establishment. “The Investigative Team determined the outbreak to be the result of food poisoning by the bacterium Clostridium perfringens due to consumption of the pork sliders provided to the public by an unlicensed temporary retail food establishment at the Rifle Rodeo on the night of June 5th, 2017. The evidence supported the conclusion that bacterial contamination was due to improper food safety practices of the unlicensed food providers.” Garfield County Public Health, Rife Rodeo Outbreak Report, accessed 7/1/20

2014: Boebert Said She Was Interested In Turning Shooters Grill Into A Franchise. “BREAM: And with the success of your restaurant there, let me ask you any plans to franchise out? BOEBERT: You know, it’s definitely crossed my mind in the past week or so. I would like to get a couple more restaurants under my belt before we start franchising out, but it’s definitely a thought in my mind.” [Newsbusters, 7/4/14]

Boebert Stated She Spent Years Counseling At-Risk Women In A Local Jail, Helping Them Become Members Of Society That “Do Not Depend Of Government Assistance”

Boebert Counseled Women At The Garfield County Jail

Boebert Counseled Women At The Garfield County Jail. “Previously, Boebert spent seven years counseling women at the Garfield County jail, bringing a message of “faith and hope.” ‘It wasn’t a wishy-washy hope but a favorable, confident expectation that they have the ability within themselves to make something of themselves,’ she said. ‘When they got out, they could put their hand to something and become successful.’” [Montrose Daily Press, 2/14/20]

Boebert Would Harbor Women In Her Home After They Were Released From Jail Until They Could Get Back On Their Feet. “Wanting to help other women become self-sufficient and independent of government support, Lauren began volunteering at the county jail, coaching female inmates about working to better their situation. On several occasions, she gave the women a safe harbor in her own home after they were released from jail, until they were able get on their feet.” [Montrose Daily Press, Letters to the Editor, 6/17/20]

Political Career

June 2020: Boebert Defeated Five-Term Republican Scott Tipton In The Primary

June 2020: Boebert Defeated Five-Term Republican Scott Tipton In The Primary. “Lauren Boebert delivered a stunning upset victory knocking off five-time incumbent U.S. Rep. Scott Tipton, R-Cortez, in Colorado’s 3rd U.S. Congressional District in the Colorado Primary Election on Tuesday night. […] According to unofficial results from the Colorado secretary of state’s website as of 9:55 p.m., Boebert had 55,237 votes, or 54.38% of the vote, compared with 46,340 votes, or 45.62% of the vote, for Tipton.” [Durando Herald, 6/30/20]

Boebert: “Draining The Swamp Starts Right Here At Home”

Boebert: “Draining The Swamp Starts Right Here At Home.” “I entered into this race to represent the people. And I have spoke with thousands of people myself. So I feel like I have an even better gauge on where my constituents are,” Boebert said Tuesday, before results had come in. ‘And I also got into this to drain the swamp and disrupt politics as usual. And draining the swamp starts right here at home. It doesn’t start in D.C.’” [Durando Herald, 6/30/20]

Boebert Said She Was Running For Congress To Stand Up For Conservative Values And Put “Far-Left Democrats In Their Place”

Boebert Said She Was Running For Congress To Stand Up For Conservative Values And Put “Far-Left Democrats In Their Place.” “There is a battle for the heart and soul of our country that I intend on helping win,” said Lauren. ‘I’m running for Congress to stand up for our conservative values, address our current representatives’ failed promises, and put far-left Democrats back in their place.’” [Lauren for Colorado, accessed 7/1/20]

Boebert Referred To Representative Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez And Other Members Of The “Squad” As “Left-Wing Lunatics”

Boebert Referred To Representative Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez And Other Members Of The “Squad” As “Left-Wing Lunatics.” ‘Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez, the Squad and the rest of these left-wing lunatics are taking a wrecking ball to our country while our current representative stays utterly silent,’ Lauren said. ‘Hard-working, patriotic Americans like you and me don’t want the Green New Deal and socialized medicine. Every time AOC and the rest of the Squad pipes up with another crazy idea, I will remind them that our belief in God, Country and Family are what built the United States of America into the greatest nation the world has ever known.’” [Lauren for Colorado, accessed 7/1/20]

Boebert Said There Needed To Be A Response To Rep. Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez’s Narrative

Boebert Said There Needed To Be A Response To Rep. Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez’s Narrative. “Boebert said her main rational for running is because of Tipton’s low media profile, which she says allows left wing House members like Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez and three other first-term Democratic women in the House, collectively known as ‘The Squad,’ to monopolize the media megaphone. ‘I’m just saying there needs to be a response to her (Ocasio-Cortez’s) narrative. And our representatives can no longer sit back utterly silent while this progressive, socialist narrative directs our country. And so we need someone who is equally loud to redirect the conversation in America. Absolutely, conservatives know this progressive, socialist narrative needs to be silenced,’ she said of Tipton’s reticence or inability to find the media spotlight.” [Durango Herald, 1/2/20]

Boebert Said That Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez And The Squad Were “Taking A Wrecking Ball To Our Country”

Boebert Said That Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez And The Squad Were “Taking A Wrecking Ball To Our Country.” “Lauren Boebert, the owner and operator of a Western Slope restaurant where all staffers openly carry guns, announced on Sunday a conservative primary challenge to Republican U.S. Rep. Scott Tipton. ‘Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez, The Squad and the rest of these left-wing lunatics are taking a wrecking ball to our country while our current representative stays utterly silent,’ Boebert said in a statement announcing her candidacy in Colorado’s 3rd Congressional District.” [The Journal, 12/9/19]

It did spend time attacking democrat AOC of NY. You running against her or Tipton? 00:24- LB: I’m absolutely running against her. There is a social narrative that is taking over our country, and I am ready to be the one that steps up for conservative values and takes on AOC. I don’t believe there are many people who can take her on the way that I will be able too.” [Next 9News, YouTube, 12/9/19]

VIDEO: Boebert Said That She Decided To Run For Congress When She Saw That Tipton Was On A Committee Chaired By Maxine Waters And He Wasn’t “Directing The Ship”—Even Though Tipton Was In The Minority Party. “[3:40] What made me decide to run for Congress or decide, Lauren, it is time to mount up, was when I heard my congressman say he was on a Committee with Maxine Waters as the chair and AOC is on that committee, and Rashida Talib is on that committee, and this is the new world that we live in and they direct the ship. And I said, why aren’t you directing the ship? Why aren’t you the captain? You have been there for 4 terms now, and you want us to higher you for a 5th, I think it is time someone else steps up, and I didn’t see anyone else step up. So I put my life and family on the line to answer the call. 04:26- Male Interviewee: He doesn’t lead that committee because Waters is in the majority and republicans are in the minority, if you were to beat Tipton that is just a republican and republican, that doesn’t help with a republican majority. 04:40- LB: I believe that he could be active and let the people of CO know what is going on. Give us a battle plan and get behind people with conservative values, endorse them and bring an effect, bring an acknowledgement to what is going on in CO.” [Next 9News, YouTube, 12/9/19]

Boebert Claimed That Republican Incumbent Scott Tipton Was Not Conservative Enough For The District—Despite Trump Endorsing Tipton

Boebert Claimed That Republican Incumbent Tipton Was Not Conservative Enough For The District—Despite Trump Endorsing Tipton

“During the campaign, she argued that Mr. Tipton voted too often with Democrats and was insufficiently conservative for Colorado’s Third Congressional District, a huge area extending from Pueblo in the south to Steamboat Springs in the north and to the state’s western border. A sprawling expanse of about 30 counties, it is mainly conservative and rural, though it includes pockets of more Democratic-leaning areas, like Aspen.” [New York Times, 7/1/20]

However, President Trump Endorsed Tipton’s Re-Election Bid

President Trump Endorsed Tipton’s Re-Election Bid. “In December, Mr. Trump endorsed Mr. Tipton, a relatively low-key lawmaker known to occasionally work with Democrats on some issues. Mr. Tipton is the third Republican in three weeks to lose despite the president’s endorsement, further denting his previously undefeated record of primary victories, of which Mr. Trump likes to boast. Ms. Boebert had questioned the presidential decision at the time, saying Mr. Trump was not aware of all the facts in the race.” [New York Times, 7/1/20]

Boebert Found Tipton’s Voting Record “Dangerously To The Left Of The Average Republican.” “Tipton has been a loyal Trump supporter. The website FiveThirtyEight lists Tipton’s support of the Trump agenda on congressional votes at 94.2%. For Boebert, that’s not good enough. Before Trump’s endorsement of Tipton via Twitter on Dec. 20 for Colorado’s 3rd Congressional District, Boebert said she doubted the president knew she was running or had even been informed of Tipton’s voting record, which she finds dangerously to the left of the average Republican member of the House. ‘I am a huge supporter of President Trump, and honestly, I cannot wait for him to find out I’m running and he gets to meet me because I’m working really hard with him to make America great and to keep it that way,’ she said.” [Durango Herald, 1/2/20]

Per GOP Bylaws, Whoever Wins The Republican 3rd Assembly Earns The First Name Position On The Ballot. “Per GOP bylaws, whoever wins the Republican 3rd Assembly with the most votes earns first name position on the 2020 primary ballot. Anyone who chooses to petition onto this June 30 ballot has their names placed below the winner of the Republican 3rd CD Assembly.” [Durango Herald, Letters to the Editor, 5/1/20]

Boebert Won The 3rd Assembly Ballot, But She Was The Only Name On The Ballot

Boebert Won The 3rd Assembly Ballot, But She Was The Only Name On The Ballot. “There has been more fantastically overblown rhetoric from congressional candidate Lauren Boebert. We should all be getting used to it by now. Boebert did not win the top line on the June 30 primary ballot by somehow beating incumbent Congressman Scott Tipton in a typical election of the Republican 3rd Congressional District Assembly. Far from it! Boebert won the 3rd CD Assembly by being the only name on the electronic ballot. In the final tally, she received only 55% of all the votes cast.” [Durango Herald, Letters to the Editor, 5/1/20]

My mom would send me into the grocery store with the EBT welfare card. There wasn’t a lot of pride in that. When I got my first paycheck, that felt so much better. I realized I could do better job taking care of my own life better than the government ever did. It made me question all the lies that the Democrats ever told my mom. She was told by politicians that she could not make it on her own and that she needed to vote for them.” [It’s A New Day Radio Interview, 1/14/20]

After Working At McDonalds, Boebert Realized She Could Do Better Job Of Taking Care Of Herself Than The Government

After Working At McDonalds, Boebert Realized She Could Do Better Job Of Taking Care Of Herself Than The Government. “Raised in a Democratic household in Denver, Boebert did not always believe in the sentiments that she preaches today. However, when she moved to the Western Slope at 12 years old and got her first paycheck at a McDonald’s in Garfield County, she realized that she could do a better job taking care of herself than the government. “It’s not always been an easy road,” Boebert said Monday in an interview with The Durango Herald. “Being raised in a poverty mentality, you kind of were raised believing everything (is) a struggle, and it is, but there’s hope in that struggle and you have to have vision to get out of it.” [Durango Herald, 12/9/19]
