And she gives aid and comfort to our enemies who illegally invade our land. That's what treason is. October 2017: Marjorie Taylor Greene Questioned If The Las Vegas Shooting Was Part Of A Plan To Attack The Second Amendment. Greene: “The Second Amendment is under attack. At least I believe it is, and I believe gun control will be the controlled reaction to the horror that unfolded over a week ago at the Route 91 Harvest Festival. Now there is another source that says that could be the very motive of the Las Vegas Massacre, a London Think Tank. It is sad and alarming that the FBI and other investigators have not revealed any real motive for Stephen Paddock to do what he did. None one goes through the amount of effort and planning to kill so many people without leaving a reason for doing it. […] Read the email below and see for yourself how this could possibly be the motive with the desired goal to push America to eventually giving up or limiting one of our most sacred rights, the right to bear arms.” [American Truth Seekers, Marjorie Greene, 10/9/17]

It's odd there's never any evidence shown for a plane in the Pentagon. But anyways, I won’t -- I'm not going to dive into the 9/11 conspiracy. But 9/11 had happened. Our country was very much into a war. We had invaded Iraq looking for weapons of mass destruction that we never found at that time. We were basically destabilizing the Middle East.” [YouTube, American Priority, 11/1/18] (Audio)

He told us in an endorsement interview that he decided to run because he “didn’t see any good Republicans” in the race. Although all of the candidates talked about improving election security, Majewski was the only one who flat-out told us he believed the 2020 presidential election was stolen (which isn’t true). Wayne Allyn Root Was A Far-Right Conspiracy Theorist

Wayne Allen Root Promoted The Conspiracy Theory That President Obama Was Not Born In America And Claimed The Las Vegas Shooter Was A Muslim. “Wayne Allyn Root, a twice-weekly columnist for the Las Vegas Journal-Review and one of the leading proponents of the theory that President Barack Obama was not born in the United States, tweeted soon after the [Las Vegas] shooting that it was a ‘clearly coordinated Muslim terror attack.’ He later tweeted additional suggestions that the shooter was a Muslim, before backing off less than two hours later, tweeting that ‘killer was LOCAL.’ Root subsequently touted reports that ISIS had claimed responsibility for the attack, saying that the shooter had recently converted to Islam. But the statement provided no evidence, and terrorism experts expressed skepticism about ISIS’ claim.” [PolitiFact, 10/2/17]

Root Said That President Trump Was “The Greatest President For Jews And For Israel In The History Of The World. […] They Love Him Like He Is The Second Coming Of God.” “In a series of tweets Wednesday morning, Mr. Trump quoted conservative radio host and known conspiracy theorist Wayne Allyn Root, who practically declared the president the Messiah during his show Tuesday night. Quoting Root, Mr. Trump shared the message that he is ‘the greatest President for Jews and for Israel in the history of the world,’ that ‘the Jewish people in Israel love him like he's the King of Israel’ and even that “They love him like he is the second coming of God.”” [CBS News, 8/21/19]

Root Was The Author Of A Book That Described A Fantasy Of His In Which Hillary Clinton And Her Aide Huma Abedin Died Like Thelma And Louise. “Root, the author of the book Angry White Male, described a fantasy of his in which Hillary Clinton and her aide Huma Abedin, whose husband's use of a computer led the FBI to reopen the investigation into Clinton's email, were in a movie with the same ending as Thelma and Louise. In that film the two female leads, badgered by a parade of male bullies, famously suicide by driving off a cliff.” [Sydney Morning Herald, 10/31/16]

Peters Supported Overturning Roe V. Wade To Ban Abortion And Claimed Democrats Were “Killers” For Supporting Abortion

Peters Supported A 20-Week Abortion Ban And Overturning Roe V. Wade

Peters Supported A 20-Week Abortion Ban Because He Believed The Ban Could Withstand Judicial Review To Overturn Roe V. Wade

Peters Said That At 20 Weeks “The Baby Starts Feeling Pain” And That That “At That Point There Is Absolutely Life.” According to a YouTube interview of Sam Peters, when asked about abortion, Peters said “[8:25] The name of the bill [Unborn Pain Child Act according to Peters] kind of gives you the idea that at that point the baby starts actually feeling pain and at that point there is absolutely life.” [YouTube, Sam Peters, 8/31/19] (Video)

Audio: Peters Supported The Pain Capable Unborn Child Act Because He Claimed It Could Withstand Judicial Review And Overturn Roe V. Wade. When asked in a podcast interview about abortion, Peters said “So there’s a—there’s a bill that I will support, it’s called the Pain Capable Unborn Child Act, and it prevents abortion after 20 weeks, which is a long time, and it—it gives exception for rape and incest. I believe that type of legislation can stand up to Supreme Court Review, and, you know, be the impetus for overturning Roe v Wade, and advancing a pro-life movement. As we’ve seen what’s going on in Georgia and Alabama, those hard right social stances, they’re immediately overturned by a federal judge. To promote a pro-life stance as I’m trying to do, we have to be very smart about it and we have to do it in a manner that can withstand judicial review.” [14:02] [Tom Roten Morning Show, 11/14/19] (Audio)

Audio: Peters Claimed The Pain Capable Unborn Child Act He Supported Would Be Better At Overturning Roe V. Wade Than More Radical Anti-Choice Legislation. When asked in a podcast interview about abortion, Peters said “So there’s a—there’s a bill that I will support, it’s called the Pain Capable Unborn Child Act, and it prevents abortion after 20 weeks, which is a long time, and it—it gives exception for rape and incest. Peters Supported The Born-Alive Abortion Survivors Protection Act

Peters Supported The Conscience Protection Act

June 2021: Peters’ Campaign Website Said That He Would “Re-Introduce And Sponsor” The Conscience Protection Act. “It will be my pleasure when I am in Congress to re-introduce and sponsor the Born-Alive Abortion Survivors Protection Act, the Pain-Capable Unborn Child Protection Act, and the Conscience Protection Act.” [Sam Peters For Congress, Issues, accessed 6/30/21]

Peters Said Life Began At Conception While Republicans Cosponsored The “Life At Conception Act” Which Effectively Banned Abortion With No Exceptions For Rape, Incest, Or The Life Of The Mother

Audio: Peters Said Life Begins At Conception. When asked in a podcast interview whether life begins at conception, Peters said “It is life. If you’re a believer in the bible and you’re believer in Christ, it is life, absolutely.” [15:05] [Tom Roten Morning Show, 11/14/19] (Audio)

143 House Republicans Cosponsored The Life At Conception Act. [H.R. 1011, Introduced 2/11/21]

Rewire: The Life At Conception Act “Would Effectively Ban Abortion With No Exception For Rape, Incest, Or To Save The Life Of The Pregnant Person.” “H.R. 616 would grant equal protection under the 14th Amendment to the Constitution of the United States for the right to life of each born and ‘preborn’ human person. […] It would effectively ban abortion with no exception for rape, incest, or to save the life of the pregnant person.
It would also ban birth control pills, IUDs, and emergency contraception. In addition, it would eliminate certain medical choices for women, including some cancer treatments and in vitro fertilization.” [Rewire, 9/28/19]

Support For Federally Established “Fetal Personhood” Which Would Ban Any State From Allowing Abortion Has Been Included In The GOP Platform Since 1980. “Overturning Roe v. Wade and returning abortion policy to the states has long been a primary goal for an anti-abortion movement that has formed a strong partnership with the Republican Party. But the ultimate objective — enshrined in the GOP platform since 1980 — is a federally established ‘fetal personhood’ right that bans any state from allowing abortion. And there are abundant signs that this perspective could become dominant in conservative circles once the great white whale of Roe has been harpooned. One important indicator is the recent omission of rape and incest exceptions from many state abortion bans (including the Texas and Mississippi laws now before the Supreme Court). These exceptions were once considered politically obligatory, and forcing pregnancies caused by rape or incest to be carried to term remains very unpopular.” [New York Magazine, 1/1/22]

Peters Suggested That Abortion Was Unnecessary Because Birth Control Was Widely Available

On His Campaign Issues Page, Peters Wrote That “We Signaled That An Abortion Is Easier Than Birth Control.” “Now, there are many forms of birth control and yet abortions, once restricted to the first trimester, are not only happening at birth but death is inflicted immediately after birth. Why? Why have we abandoned all personal responsibility when science has made it so much easier to avoid pregnancy? Why have we signaled that an abortion is easier than birth control?” [Sam Peters For Congress, Issues, accessed 6/30/21]

TCJA Increased The National Debt By An Estimated $1-2 Trillion

The TCJA Was Estimated To Increase The National Debt From $1-2 Trillion. “The Joint Committee on Taxation and the Congressional Budget Office have published several estimates of TCJA’s expected budget impact. These estimates all show TCJA substantially reducing revenues and increasing deficits over its first decade. The Specific amount varies—from about $1 trillion to $2 trillion—for three reasons.” [Tax Policy Center, Accessed 4/5/22]

TCJA Incentivized American Companies To Offshore And Outsource Their Businesses

ITEP: The TCJA Created “Clear Incentives For American-Based Corporations To Move Operations And Jobs Abroad, Including A Zero Percent Tax Rate On Many Profits Generated Offshore.” “The Trump-GOP tax law enacted in December 2017 creates clear incentives for American-based corporations to move operations and jobs abroad, including a zero percent tax rate on many profits generated offshore.” [ITEP, 6/2/20]

TCJA Lowered The Corporate Tax Rate And Gave 83 Percent Of Benefits To The Top 1% Of Earners

GOP Tax Bill Permanently Lowered Corporate Tax Rate From 35 Percent To 21 Percent. “A massive corporate tax cut has been the centerpiece of the Republican tax plan from the beginning. This bill permanently cuts the corporate tax rate from 35 percent to 21 percent.” [Vox, 12/22/17]

Tax Cuts And Jobs Act Gives 83% Of Benefits To Top 1%. “By 2027, more than half of all Americans — 53 percent — would pay more in taxes under the tax bill agreed to by House and Senate Republicans, a new analysis by the Tax Policy Center finds. That year, 82.8 percent of the bill’s benefit would go to the top 1 percent, up from 62.1 under the Senate bill.” [Vox, 12/18/17]

TCJA Would Raise Taxes On Poor And Middle-Class Americans

The TCJA Was Set To Raise Taxes On Poor And Middle-Class Americans. “Almost all provisions of the bill, with the exception of the reduction in the corporate tax rate from 35 percent to 21 percent, are temporary, expiring at the end of 2025. One exception is the adoption of a new slower-growing inflation measure to adjust tax brackets, a change that effectively raises taxes over time and helps pay for the permanent corporate rate cut. Since corporate rate cuts mostly help Americans rich enough to own stock, that means that in 2027, poor and middle-class Americans would see a very mild tax increase on average” [Vox, 12/18/17]

Immigration Issues

Peters Believed That All Undocumented Immigrants Should Be Removed From The Country And Made To Apply To Enter Through The Legal Immigration System

Peters Believed That All Undocumented Immigrants Should Be Removed From The Country And Made To Apply To Enter Through The Legal Immigration System. “On the issue of the millions of undocumented immigrants already living in the U.S., Peters said that anyone who has ‘disrespected our laws by entering our country illegally’ should be removed from the country and apply to enter through the legal immigration system, instead.” [The Nevada Independent, 5/26/20]

Peters Was Open To Letting DREAMers Who “Tried To Make The Right Steps To Gain Citizenship” Stay In The Country

However, Peters said of DREAMers, or those undocumented immigrants who were brought to the U.S. as children, that ‘there is a level of accountability’ on the part of the U.S. if they have ‘tried to make the right steps to gain citizenship.’” [The Nevada Independent, 5/26/20]

Peters Was Opposed To “Open Borders”

“On immigration, one of the signature issues of his campaign, Peters said that ‘a country without borders is no country at all.’ ‘If we have open borders, and we flood the streets with people from all over the world, where does America begin? And where does America end? We don't know that answer,’ he said.” [The Nevada Independent, 5/26/20]

Peters Supported Limiting Legal Immigration To The United States Because “There Is A Carrying Capacity To A Country”

“On the issue of legal immigration, which has been sharply reduced as part of a broader plan by the Trump Administration to cut the number of immigrants admitted to the U.S., Peters said ‘there is a carrying capacity to a country’ and that, though he is ‘all for’ legal immigration, there must also be limits on such immigration.” [The Nevada Independent, 5/26/20]

Peters Was Designated As A “True Reformer” By The Anti-Immigrant Group NumbersUSA

“The nonpartisan organization of education and investigation, NumbersUSA, designated Peters as a “True Reformer” because of his intention to stop the illegal immigration by strengthening the security on the borders.” [El Tiempo Libre, 12/5/19]

NumbersUSA Advocated Cutting Legal Immigration To The United States. “These are heady days for Roy Beck and NumbersUSA. In the past year, the hardline immigration policies they've long championed have gained headlines and support. Numbers USA, which pushes for cuts in both legal and illegal immigration, reducing family-based visas and other restrictive measures, has gained exposure of its message from one of the brightest spots on the world stage.” [McClatchy DC, 6/29/18]

John Beck, The Founder Of Numbers USA, Previously Edited “The Social Contract,” A Quarterly Anti-Immigrant Journal That The Southern Poverty Law Center Called “The Work Of Race-Baiting White Nationalists.” “These are heady days for Roy Beck and NumbersUSA. […] Given the positions it takes on an issue that's historically sensitive, NumbersUSA was controversial from the get-go. It hasn't been formally labeled a hate group by the Southern Poverty Law Center, but the center has denounced it for years, in no small part due to the group's connections to John Tanton. Tanton, a retired Michigan ophthalmologist, was named the ‘racist architect of the modern anti-immigrant movement’ by the SPLC, which also called his quarterly journal, The Social Contract, the work of ‘race-baiting’ white nationalists. Beck was Washington editor of the journal.” [McClatchy DC, 6/29/18]

The “For The People Act” Included A Provision Called The “DISCLOSE Act,” Which Ended Dark Money Spending On Elections

By Including The “DISCLOSE ACT,” Which Required Independent Political Groups To Disclose Their Donors, The “For The People Act” Would Have Ended Dark Money Spending On Elections. “Democrats are pushing a sweeping package of voting rights, campaign finance and ethics reforms as their top legislative priority in 2021. One of the pieces of the bill is a section requiring independent political groups that currently don’t have to disclose their donors — whose donations are known as “dark money” — to finally do so. […] And despite this newfound dominance, Democrats are still looking to pass the DISCLOSE Act — now part of the voting, finance and ethics-focused For The People Act — and end dark money spending on elections.” [HuffPost, 3/22/21]

He talked about his failed legislative history and weak political leadership. […] I look forward to rolling up my sleeves and unlike Rep.
