Significant Findings

Aadland Followed QAnon Accounts On Social Media, Sought The Support Of QAnon Influencers, Worked With QAnon Politicians, And Espoused QAnon Theories

- On his Parler account, Aadland followed “at least a dozen” accounts that promoted QAnon conspiracies.
- Aadland said it was “fantastic” to meet with Scott Presler, an anti-Muslim conspiracy theorist associated with QAnon and the “Stop the Steal” movement.
- On Facebook, Aadland liked and followed the page, “ThriveOn,” which espoused several QAnon and other conspiracy theories like 9/11 “trutherism” and claims of “satanic ritual abuse” at the White House.
- Aadland bought into the QAnon conspiracy that George Soros funded protest movements.
- Aadland had a close relationship with Representatives Lauren Boebert and Marjorie Taylor Greene, who both had significant ties to the QAnon movement.

Aadland Was Anti-Abortion, Supported The Overturn Of Roe V. Wade, And Claimed That Abortion Was A “Cultural Sickness”

- Aadland applauded the overturn of Roe V. Wade, was a “big fan” of Texas’ bounty hunter abortion ban and called abortion a “cultural sickness.”
- Aadland was “absolutely against any federal funding of abortion” and advocated for defunding Planned Parenthood.
- Aadland said he would not support a federal abortion ban because he did not “want Congress or the Federal Government involved in this issue at all” and said, “I can’t contradict myself.”

Aadland Backed The Big Lie, Supported Policies That Would Make It Harder To Vote, And Discussed His Intent To Lie To Voters About His Beliefs On The 2020 Election

- Aadland believed that the 2020 election was “absolutely rigged,” influenced by fraud, and had “massive statistical anomalies” but also said he “can’t prove it.”
- Aadland entertained conspiracy theories about Dominion voting machines leading to election fraud.
- Aadland said that Biden’s Administration was “an illegitimate government” and that the “country is on the brink of being taken over by a communist government.”
- On several occasions, Aadland publicly stated that he hid his belief that the 2020 election was stolen while on the campaign trail so as not to dissuade voters from supporting him.
- Aadland advocated for policies that would harm voting rights and make it more difficult to vote like Voter ID laws “in every state,” purging voter rolls, and opposing “federalization” of elections.

✓ Aadland said the arrests of the Proud Boys, who he followed on Parler, after January 6th were examples of “leftist censorship and government overreach.”

✓ Aadland said that the U.S. Government was “Gestapo-Like” in its treatment of insurrectionists who he called “political prisoners.”

✓ Talking about January 6th insurrectionists, Aadland said that he would “see that justice is done for the good guys.”

✓ Aadland believed that Capitol security let insurrectionists into the Capitol Building and that there were “plants” in the crowd encouraging rioters to enter the building.

✓ Aadland said that he would support a Congressional investigation into the Capitol police officer who shot January 6th insurrectionist Ashli Babbitt.

✓ Aadland’s campaign treasurer, Tom Bjorklund, was a January 6th insurrectionist.

Aadland Held A Managing Role For Noble Energy When The Company Spilled 7,500 Gallons Of Crude Oil Into The Poudre River In Colorado’s DJ Basin

✓ Aadland said that he would “protect Colorado’s lakes, rivers, and streams.”

✓ … But in 2014, he worked for Noble Energy, an oil and gas company that dumped 7,500 gallons of oil into “Colorado’s only designated scenic river” and was sued by the federal government for the spill.

  o In 2014, Aadland worked as a drilling engineer for Noble Energy in Colorado’s DJ Basin.

Aadland Repeatedly Pushed Dangerous Misinformation About Covid-19 And Supported The Widely Discredited Use Of Ivermectin As A Treatment For The Disease

✓ Aadland frequently pushed misinformation about Covid-19, understated the risks of the Delta Variant, and seemingly supported the use of Ivermectin to treat Covid-19.

✓ Aadland was against vaccine mandates.

✓ December 2021: Aadland’s campaign fundraised off the fact that he had Covid-19.

✓ On multiple occasions, Aadland wrote tweets advocating for the firing and prosecution of Dr. Anthony Fauci.

Aadland Believed Conspiracy Theories And Spread Misinformation About Ukraine And Often Appeared To Align With Russia And Putin Amidst The Ukraine-Russia Conflict

✓ Aadland pushed out conspiracy theories about Ukraine and even claimed it was “one of the most corrupt countries on the planet” and promoted claims that Zelensky was a “puppet.”

✓ Aadland railed against sending military aid to Ukraine and said that those who did support military aid were “outrightly betraying the American people.”

✓ Aadland aligned with Russia and Putin during the Ukrainian invasion, saying they are not “the demons they’re made out to be” and pushed Russian propaganda that there were secret U.S.-funded biolabs.
Aadland Was Accused Of Coordinating With A Super PAC For Sharing A Common Vendor That Also Had The Same Address As The Super PAC

✓ A Super PAC named “For Colorado’s Future” funded $337,736.63 in independent expenditures toward Aadland’s CO-07 congressional campaign entirely through a company called Telephone Town Hall Meeting.

✓ For Colorado’s Future PAC was in-debt to Telephone Town Hall Meeting for $257,736.63 in advertising.

✓ Telephone Town Hall Meeting was one of Aadland’s vendors for his CO-07 campaign and received over 20k in disbursements over the course of the cycle.

✓ Telephone Town Hall Meeting and the For Colorado’s Future PAC shared the same registered address at 958 Cornflower Drive in Golden, Colorado 80401.

✓ Aadland was accused by his CO-07 primary opponents for coordination between the Super PAC that was exclusively donating in favor of his campaign and the vendor that his campaign often used.

Aadland Firmly Supported Rick Scott’s “Rescue America Plan”

✓ Aadland said he was “in full support” and would do “everything I can to implement” Senator Rick Scott’s Rescue America Plan, which would raise taxes on half of all Americans and sunset Social Security and Medicare

✓ The Rescue America Plan would raise taxes on half of Americans.

✓ The Rescue America Plan would sunset federal legislation like Social Security and Medicare in five year without explicit reauthorization.

Aadland Was A Far-Right Extremist Who Repeatedly Used Unhinged And Violent Rhetoric And Supported Policies That Were Bad For Colorado

✓ Aadland opposed bipartisan gun reforms, said that school shootings were caused by a lack of spirituality in public schools, and made his own “ghost guns.”

✓ Aadland was a threat to education, advocating for abolishing the Department of Education and defunding schools because he claimed they were “sexualizing our children.”

✓ Aadland wanted to overturn Obergefell & supported discrimination against the LGBTQ+ community.

✓ Aadland said that The Affordable Care Act was “the worst written legislation in history” and advocated for the introduction of “free market forces, competition” into healthcare

✓ Aadland claimed that the federal income tax was unconstitutional, but the 16th amendment of the United States Constitution stated that “Congress shall have the power to lay and collect taxes on incomes.”

✓ Aadland repeatedly used unhinged and violent rhetoric about his political opposition.

  o Aadland repeatedly said that he was fighting a spiritual war against evil.

  o Aadland said that “we’re in the trenches fighting in the next revolution” against Democrats.
Talking about political opponents, Aadland said “the enemy is inside our walls right now.”

Aadland said that the government “has become an enemy of the people.”

Aadland Firmly Aligned Himself With Donald Trump And Adopted His Campaign Slogans And Messaging

- Aadland supported Trump and said that Trump inspired him to register as a Republican after being an independent.
  - Aadland: “With all his flaws, Donald Trump restored my hope that we can take back this country.”

- Aadland adopted Trump campaign slogans and jargon such as “Make America Great Again,” “America First,” and “Fake News.”

Aadland Associated With Extremists And Unsavory Characters

- Aadland was endorsed by former Rep. Paul Broun, who said evolution was a lie “from the pit of hell.”

- Aadland’s 2022 U.S. Senate campaign kick-off was headlined by former Rep. Tom Tancredo, who was a “world-famous race-baiting Congressman” who suggested that “the U.S. bomb Mecca.”

- Aadland said he was friends with Lauren Boebert, who once said that she hoped the QAnon Conspiracy Theory “is real” and supported QAnon.

- Aadland attended a fundraiser with Marjorie Taylor Greene, who was known as the “QAnon Congresswoman.”

- Aadland was endorsed by extremist musician Ted Nugent, who told fans at a concert to “go berserk on the skulls of Democrats.”

- Aadland was endorsed by Trump VA Secretary Robert Wilkie, who was pressured to resign after a report revealed that he tried to discredit an assault victim.

- Aadland “cozied up” with “Trump loyalist” and Trump Secretary of State Mike Pompeo.

- Aadland was endorsed by Former Texas Governor Rick Perry, who “has repeatedly questioned the science behind climate change.”

- Aadland was endorsed by former Trump Secretary of the Interior, Ryan Zinke, who “misused his position” as Interior Secretary to “advance a development project in his Montana hometown.”

Aadland Had A History Of Strange And Unsettling Comments

- When running for U.S. Senate, Aadland questioned the military service of his opponent, who was a combat veteran that served for 32 years.
  - Aadland: “I know Ron Hanks has claimed to be a combat veteran… I don’t know what his service looks like. What I can tell you is, I did two tours in real combat.”
✓ Aadland said that “there was a thrill” when 9/11 first happened because “I knew I was going to have the opportunity to be tested in combat.”

✓ On Father’s Day, Aadland tweeted that “Father’s Day is not just about remembering their role in procreation, but also reminding fathers of their role in raising their children.”

✓ Aadland said that “most people are not educated” and “they are the sheep of society.”

✓ Aadland: “I’m so tired of coming to groups who just meet up every week and just sit and bitch about problems.”

✓ Aadland suggested that the quality of political candidate that people can vote for is “terrible” because “only 10% of Christians vote in primaries.”

✓ Aadland agreed with a radio host who said “if Presidential administrations were described the way that Friends episodes were titled, this one would be “The One Where America Was A Third World Country.”

✓ Aadland said that Black Lives Matter was destroying the nuclear family.

QAnon Was A Movement That Believed That “A Group Of Satan-Worshiping Elites Who Run A Child Sex Ring” Controlled Government And The Media

New York Times: The QAnon Movement Espoused A Belief That “A Group Of Satan-Worshiping Elites Who Run A Child Sex Ring Are Trying To Control Our Politics And Media.” “QAnon was once a fringe phenomenon — the kind most people could safely ignore. But recently, it has gone mainstream. In 2020, QAnon supporters flooded social media with false information about Covid-19, the Black Lives Matter protests and the presidential election, and recruited legions of new believers to their ranks. A December poll by NPR and Ipsos found that 17 percent of Americans believed that the core falsehood of QAnon — that “a group of Satan-worshiping elites who run a child sex ring are trying to control our politics and media” — was true.” [New York Times, 9/3/21]

New York Times: Followers Of QAnon “Participated In The Deadly Capitol Riot” On January 6th, 2021. “QAnon has also seeped into the offline world. Followers of the movement participated in the deadly Capitol riot in January, and other QAnon believers have been charged with violent crimes, including kidnappings, assassination plots and the 2019 murder of a mafia boss in New York. A terrorism bulletin issued by the Department of Homeland Security in late January warned of increasing violence from domestic extremist groups, including conspiracy theory communities like QAnon.” [New York Times, 9/3/21]

New York Times: QAnon Followers Believed That Members Of The “Satan-Worshipping Elites” “Kill And Eat Their Victims To Extract A Life-Extending Chemical Called Adrenochrome.” “A December poll by NPR and Ipsos found that 17 percent of Americans believed that the core falsehood of QAnon — that “a group of Satan-worshiping elites who run a child sex ring are trying to control our politics and media” — was true. […] QAnon followers believe that this cabal includes top Democrats like President Joseph R. Biden Jr., Hillary Clinton, Barack Obama and George Soros, as well as a number of entertainers and Hollywood celebrities like Oprah Winfrey, Tom Hanks and Ellen DeGeneres and religious figures including Pope Francis and the Dalai Lama. Many of them also believe that, in addition to molesting children, members of this group kill and eat their victims to extract a life-extending chemical called adrenochrome. [New York Times, 9/3/21]

Aadland Followed “At Least A Dozen” Accounts That Promoted QAnon Conspiracies On His Parler Account

Aadland Followed “At Least A Dozen” Accounts That Promoted QAnon On His Parler Account. “Among the 104 accounts Aadland follows on Parler, at least a dozen promote QAnon, the multi-pronged conspiracy theory about, among other topics, Democrats being Satanic pedophiles and ‘deep state’ government workers plotting against Trump. In 2019, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, declared QAnon to be a domestic terror threat. Aadland’s account hasn’t posted its own comments or other content on Parler. The account bears Aadland’s name, identifies him as “WinterLion,” and describes him as “Patriot. Combat Veteran. Truth is my religion.” [Colorado Times Recorder, 7/19/22]

- On His Parler, Aadland Followed An Account Named “WWG1WGA” Which Represents The QAnon Catchphrase: “Where We Go One, We Go All.” “Aadland’s account hasn’t posted its own comments or other content on Parler. The account bears Aadland’s name, identifies him as ‘WinterLion,’ and describes him as ‘Patriot. Combat Veteran. Truth is my religion.’ The QAnon accounts followed by Aadland include the user “WWG1WGA” who has the handle @KAGDonaldTrump and has over 15,000 followers.”

- New York Times: “WWG1WGA,” Which Stood For “Where We Go One, We Go All,” Is “QAnon Iconography.” “The canard is convoluted and confusing, but its iconography is clear and was plentiful: There were shirts with the letter ‘Q’ or slogans like ‘Trust the Plan’; signs saying ‘Save the Children’; and flags with the abbreviation ‘WWG1WGA,’ which stands for ‘Where We Go One, We Go All.”’ [New York Times, 1/13/21]

- On His Parler, Aadland Followed A “QAnon Promoter” Named X22 Report Who Had Nearly A Quarter Million Followers. “The QAnon accounts followed by Aadland include the user ‘WWG1WGA’ who has the handle @KAGDonaldTrump and has over 15,000 followers; QAnon promoter X22 Report, with nearly a quarter million followers; and Joe M, with the handle @StormIsUponUS, 364,000 followers. Aadland also follows Ghost Ezra, a QAnon account best known for its rabidly antisemitic posts on Telegram, another far right platform, but that nevertheless has over 22,000 followers on Parler.”

ThriveOn Posted A Video From “Q” Titled “We Are The Plan.”

[ThriveOn, Facebook, 10/28/18]

- New York Times: “Q” Was The Central Figure Behind QAnon Posts And Conspiracy Theories. “In October 2017, a post appeared on 4chan, the notoriously toxic message board, from an anonymous account calling itself “Q Clearance Patriot.” This poster, who became known simply as “Q,” claimed to be a high-ranking government insider with access to classified information about Mr. Trump’s war against the global cabal. […] Q’s identity is still unknown, although there have been hints and speculation about it for years. Some speculate that a single internet troll has been posting as Q the entire time; others say that multiple people are involved in posting as Q, or that Q’s identity has changed over time. […] Q’s account has been quiet in recent months, and has posted only a few times since Mr. Trump’s election loss in November. Many QAnon believers hope that Q will return someday, although others maintain that the movement no longer needs Q as a central figure.” [New York Times, 9/3/21]

ThriveOn Posted A Video Promoting 9/11 Trutherism, A Conspiracy That Was Adopted By QAnon

C-SPAN: “Adherents Of The 9/11 Truth Movement Are Conspiracy Theorists Who Dispute The Mainstream Account Of The September 11 Attacks Of 2001.” “Adherents of the 9/11 Truth movement are conspiracy theorists who dispute the mainstream account of the September 11 attacks of 2001. The ‘truthers’, as they are, sometimes pejoratively, called, dispute the commonly accepted account that Al-Qaeda terrorists hijacked four airliners, crashed them into the Pentagon and New York's Twin Towers, whereupon the crashes led to the collapse of the Twin Towers. Truthers primarily focus on missed information that isn't explained in the official NIST theory, such as the collapse of World Trade Center 7. They suggest a cover-up and, at the least, complicity by insiders.” [C-Span, accessed 7/19/22]
• New York Times: The QAnon Movement Espoused A Belief That “A Group Of Satan-Worshiping Elites Who Run A Child Sex Ring Are Trying To Control Our Politics And Media.” “QAnon was once a fringe phenomenon — the kind most people could safely ignore. Aadland Bought Into The QAnon Conspiracy That George Soros Funded Protest Movements

Aadland Suggested That Today’s Civil Rights Activists Were Funded By George Soros.
Guardian: “Far Right Activists And Believers In The QAnon Conspiracy Have Accused Soros Of Funding Violent Protests.” “Soros, who is Jewish and was born in Hungary, has been subjected to antisemitic attacks from conservatives for decades. Far-right activists and believers in the QAnon conspiracy theory have accused Soros of funding violent protests, of supporting an imagined global ring of pedophiles and of driving illegal immigration, a recurring theme in Carlson’s film.” [Guardian, 2/4/22]

Aadland Had A Close Relationship With Representatives Lauren Boebert And Marjorie Taylor Greene, Who Had Significant Ties To The QAnon Movement

Aadland Said He Was Friends With Rep. Lauren Boebert, Who Once Said That She Hoped The QAnon Conspiracy Theory “Is Real” And Supported QAnon

Aadland Said He Was Friends With Lauren Boebert, Who Introduced Him To The Freedom Caucus.
“[25:49] Question: Are you interested in becoming a part of the House Freedom Caucus? A: Lauren Boebert introduced me to the Freedom Caucus and I have since become friends with her and other members of the Freedom Caucus. I love the men and women patriots of the freedom caucus. But this seat will be under attack from the day I take office, so I need to be very deliberate with all of my actions.” [Aadland for Congress, Tele-Townhall, 6/22/22] (AUDIO)

November 2020: Boebert Expressed Support For QAnon And Said She Hoped It “Is Real.” “Republican gun-rights activist Lauren Boebert defeated Democrat Diane Mitsch Bush in Colorado's 3rd Congressional District, according to the Associated Press. Why it matters: Boebert, a first-time candidate who defeated five-term GOP incumbent Rep. Scott Tipton in the state's June primary, has expressed support for the baseless QAnon conspiracy theory, saying in May she hopes it "is real." [Axios, 11/4/20]

Aadland Attended A Fundraiser With Marjorie Taylor Greene, Who Supported QAnon And Was Known As The “QAnon Congresswoman”

August 2021: After Aadland Was Criticized For Attending An Event With Marjorie Taylor Greene, Aadland Said “I’ll Listen To Anyone And Thoughtfully Consider Their Perspective- Including Marjorie Taylor Greene.”
I’m a firm believer in 1st Amendment rights. I’ll listen to anyone and thoughtfully consider their perspective. Including Marjorie Taylor Greene. Doesn’t mean I agree with everything. I fought to protect everyone’s right to free speech. Especially a sitting Congresswoman’s. -EA

January 2021: RollingStone: Marjorie Taylor Greene Supported QAnon And Was “Known In The Mainstream Media As The QAnon Congresswoman.” “Marjorie Taylor Greene has had a busy few days since being sworn into Congress. Known in the mainstream media as the ‘Qanon congresswoman’ due to her support for the baseless far-right conspiracy theory QAnon, which posits the existence of a deep state cabal of left-wing cannibals and pedophiles angling for a new world order, Greene’s first big move in Congress was a dramatic announcement that she was filing for articles of impeachment against President Joe Biden.” [RollingStone, 1/27/21]

Aadland Was Anti-Abortion, Supported The Overturn Of Roe V. Wade, And Claimed That Abortion Was A “Cultural Sickness”

Aadland Applauded The Overturn Of Roe V. Wade

“Aadland Applauded The Overturn Of Roe And Criticized A Colorado Law That Codified Roe. “Another GOP candidate, Erik Aadland, said he agreed with the Supreme Court’s decision to overturn Roe v. Wade and applauded the Justices’ courage. ‘As a father of three children, I am distinctly pro-Life. As a Congressman, I will take a stand against any federal funding of abortion, upholding the Hyde Amendment,’ he said. ‘Abortion should be a states’ rights issue, and even though I strongly disagree with the permissiveness of the recent Colorado law (HB 1279), which puts us on par with the laws of North Korea and China, I also respect the legislative process for the people of Colorado to decide how this sensitive issue is managed within the state.’” [CPR News, 6/24/22]
Aadland: “I Agree With The Supreme Court’s Decision To Overturn Roe V. Wade.” “I agree with the Supreme Court’s decision to overturn Roe v. Wade and applaud their courage in turning this back to the states. As a father of three children, I am distinctly pro-Life. As a Congressman, I will take a stand against any federal funding of abortion, upholding the Hyde Amendment. Abortion should be a state’s rights issue, and even though I strongly disagree with the permissiveness of the recent Colorado law (HB 1279) which puts us on par with the laws of North Korea and China, I also respect the legislative process for the people of Colorado to decide how this sensitive issue is managed within the state.”

“Aadland Was A “Big Fan” Of Texas’ Bounty Hunter Abortion Ban

September 2021: Aadland: “I Support Texas’s (And That Of Any State’s For That Matter) Right To Adjudicate Abortion At The State Level In Alignment With The Will Of Their Constituency.” “Colorado Politics reported on where the candidates stand on Texas' draconian law to ban abortion: Erik Aadland: ‘I support Texas’s (and that of any State's for that matter) right to adjudicate abortion at the State level in alignment with the will of their constituency, Aadland wrote in a text message. I want the Federal government out of the issue altogether and I am absolutely against any Federal funding of abortion.” [States News Service, 9/2/21]

May 2022: ColoradoPols: “Erik Aadland Is A Big Fan Of The Ridiculous Abortion Restrictions Recently Enacted In Texas.” “There are three Republicans running for Congress in CO-07. It’s safe to say that none of them support abortion rights. Erik Aadland is a big fan of the ridiculous abortion restrictions recently enacted in Texas[10], so there's no need to ask him about Roe v. Wade.” [ColoradoPols, 5/3/22]

“Aadland Said That Abortion Was A “Cultural Sickness”

Aadland Said That Abortion Was A “Cultural Sickness” Caused Because “Kids Are Not Being Taught That Sex Is Sacred.” “[21:08] Question: ‘What kind of methods do you have to fight against Colorado being the abortion capitol of the world?’ Aadland: ‘Yeah it’s abhorrent. California’s bill is even more horrible, criminal, and basically infanticide. The way we address it is that we have to take back the state. […] And at the end of the day we’ve gotta treat this as a cultural sickness. This is an education problem. Kids are not being taught that sex is sacred, this act of creation.” [Aadland for Congress, Grace Covenant Church Meet And Greet, 5/25/22] (AUDIO)

“Aadland Was “Absolutely Against Any Federal Funding Of Abortion” And Advocated For Defunding Planned Parenthood
September 2021: Aadland: “I Am Absolutely Against Any Federal Funding Of Abortion.” “Colorado Politics reported on where the candidates stand on Texas' draconian law to ban abortion: Erik Aadland: ‘I support Texas's (and that of any State's for that matter) right to adjudicate abortion at the State level in alignment with the will of their constituency, Aadland wrote in a text message. Aadland: “I Want To See Planned Parenthood Defunded.” “[20:50] Question: How do you stand on the matters of life?’ Aadland: ‘I am pro-life, so what that means is that as a Congressman, I would like to see Roe v. Wade overturned. I believe it was a poorly written decision, it was unconstitutional in nature, and I want this returned back to the states. And I want to stand against the federal funding of abortion whatsoever as your Congressman and I want to see Planned Parenthood defunded.” [Aadland for Congress, Tele-Townhall, 6/22/22] (AUDIO)

Aadland Said He Wouldn’t Support A Federal Abortion Ban Because He Did Not “Want Congress Or The Federal Government Involved In This Issue At All” And Said “I Can’t Contradict Myself”

Aadland Backed The Big Lie, Supported Policies That Would Make It Harder To Vote, And Publicly Discussed His Intent To Lie To Voters About His Beliefs On The 2020 Election

Aadland Believed That The 2020 Election Was “Absolutely Rigged,” Influenced By Fraud, And Had “Massive Statistical Anomalies” But Also Said He “Can’t Prove It”

June 2021: Aadland: “The 2020 Election, It Was Rigged. Absolutely Rigged. If You Do Enough Looking Into It, I Think You'll Be Convinced. Nevertheless, It's Extremely Scary What Transpired.” AADLAND: “[4:11] The 2020 election, it was rigged. Absolutely rigged, if you do enough looking into it, I think you’ll be convinced. Nevertheless, it’s extremely scary what transpired there was a significant amount of fraud in the 2020 election. So this for me, as a former combat veteran, somebody who has fought for this country, and risked my life for this country. I feel called to duty. And honestly, I think there's a call to duty for all patriots who love this country to not die and not let it go quietly into the night and not let it be transformed by radical agenda. So why the Senate in particular? It's partly because I feel a sense of urgency, right? I don't have time to work my way up and I'm most passionate about the federal issues, and I'm very well informed. I've worked all over the world. I've worked all over the world. And I think I have a good breadth and understanding of the issues. And I know I’d make a good senator. But ultimately, one doesn't just wake up in the morning and do something like this without being inspired.” [Jefferson County Republican Men’s Club, 6/7/21] (VIDEO)

Colorado Newsline: Aadland “Has Repeated False Claims That The 2020 Election Was ‘Absolutely Rigged.’ ‘Aadland, meanwhile, has repeated false claims that the 2020 election was 'absolutely rigged.' […] Nearly two-thirds of Aadland’s campaign cash has come in the form of personal loans totaling $112,000, according to FEC data.” [Colorado Newsline, 10/18/21]

June 2022: Aadland Said He “Has A Sense” That Fraud Influenced The 2020 Election

June 2022: On A Radio Show, Aadland Said “He Has A Sense” That Fraud Influenced The 2020 Election. “Other candidates who have cast doubt on the 2020 results who won Tuesday include Army veteran Erik Aadland. He won a three-way GOP primary in the 7th Congressional District and said on conservative talk radio in April that he “has a sense” that fraud in the 2020 election influenced the outcome. ‘Can I say definitively? No,’ Aadland said on George Brauchler’s show. Democrats wasted no time in attacking Aadland for his statements about the 2020 election, with the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee calling him too extreme for Colorado.” [Durango Herald, 6/29/22]

April 2022: Aadland Said It Was “Fact” That The 2020 Election Had “Massive Statistical Anomalies”

Aadland Said It Was “Fact” That The 2020 Election Had “Massive Statistical Anomalies.” “[9:36] George: Was the 2020 outcome a product of fraud. And if it was, in the election system, what was the fraud? Aadland: ‘Well there was fraud in the election, there’s fraud in every election.’ George: ‘Yeah but, but enough to impact the outcome?’ […] At the end of the day, was the 2020 outcome in that election for President Trump. Was it decided because of fraud?’ Aadland: ‘Neither you nor me could say definitively if it was or wasn’t. That’s the problem George with these questions. There’s a lot of factors involved in this and it’s extremely complex.’ […] George: ‘Have you seen sufficient evidence to cause you to say ‘I doubt the outcome of the 2020 election.’ Aadland: ‘I have seen enough to call into question the validity of the election yes, but to say definitively? No.’ George: ‘But what’s the evidence you have seen. Give me an example.’ Aadland: […] ‘There are massive statistical anomalies throughout those 7 states, and I’m referring to Pennsylvania, Georgia, Wisconsin, Arizona a lot of that is coming out, they rushed through a process unconstitutionally […], then they bailed out a significant amount of ballots without going through their voter rolls. That is fact, George.” [George Show, 4/7/22] (AUDIO)

February 2022: Aadland Said “Clearly Mail-In Ballots” Introduced “Plenty Of Opportunities For Fraud”

Aadland: “Clearly Mail-In Ballots”Introduced “Plenty Of Opportunities For Fraud.” AADLAND: “[35:32] Clearly mail-in ballots and that process introduced plenty of opportunities for fraud. We saw a number of states in this country rush to implement mail-in balloting under the pretext of Covid and the pandemic. This was extremely problematic across the country. Now in-person voting is clearly the securest method. We did this for many years. We do need to have Voter ID laws, we do need to prohibit ballot harvesting. We need to be very careful about involving the federal government in our election process and centralizing it.” [Jeffco Liberty Coalition CD-7 Candidate Debate, 2/17/22] (VIDEO)

April 2022: Aadland Said He Believed That Fraud Played A Role In The 2020 Election But Said “I Can’t Prove It”

Aadland: “Yes, I Believe That Fraud Played A Role In The Outcome Of The 2020 Election, But I Can’t Prove It.” “[15:30] I’m certain there was fraud in the 2020 elections. I have a sense that it influenced the outcome. Can I say definitively? No.’ George: ‘I’m just asking what does Erik Aadland think. […] what do you believe?’ Aadland: ‘Any politician who says they know the answer on this I think is a bit disingenuous. Yes I believe that fraud played a role in the outcome 2020 election, but I can’t prove it so I’m very careful of making a declarative statement that I can’t prove myself.” [George Show, 4/7/22] (AUDIO)

Aadland Entertained Conspiracy Theories About Dominion Voting Machines Leading To Election Fraud
Aadland Entertained Fears That Dominion Voting Machines Had Security Issues And Were Prone To Fraud Because They Were Connected To The Internet During The 2020 Election. “[34:10] Question: Jim Powers was concerned about the Dominion voting machines that have come into Colorado and since they’ve come in, we’ve kinda leaned more liberal.’ Aadland: ‘There are a lot of concerns about machines. […] What they are saying the problem is in Colorado is the audit process and the cleaning of the voter rolls. […] Getting rid of the machines, this particular type of machine, is important, because I think we need a happy middle ground because hand counting actually introduces more opportunities for fraud and error. So we need machines that are actually connected to the internet that don’t actually have the security issues.” [Aadland for Congress, Grace Covenant Church, 4/25/22]

Aadland “Proudly” Refused To Condemn Trump’s Big Lie About The 2020 Election

Aadland Said That Biden’s Administration Was “An Illegitimate Government” And That The “Country Is On The Brink Of Being Taken Over By A Communist Government”

June 2022: Aadland: “We Have An Illegitimate Government In Power” And “I Don’t Always Use This Kind Of Language On The Campaign Trail Because I Am So Deliberate With What I Say Because The Consequences Of Not Winning Are So Significant.” “[0:33] So when I saw what transpired in the 2020 elections, how they were undermined by fraud, how they were corrupted, and now we have an illegitimate government in power. I was scared to action and I turned to prayer like never before. Now I’m being real with you folks. I’m being real because I’ve spoken to you before. I don’t always use this kind of language on the campaign trail because I am so deliberate with what I say because the consequences of not winning are so significant. So I am strategic. I don’t go out and talk about election integrity on and on and on because It’s not an issue that wins us this race. You need to understand that I know what’s going on and I am much more effective at addressing it as a congressman than I am just screaming from the bully pulpit. So I need your trust. I know what’s going on in this country. I know there is an all out attack on our freedoms.” [YouTube, 6/21/22] (AUDIO)

June 2021: Aadland: “This Country Is On The Brink Of Being Taken Over By A Communist Government.” “[3:31] Well, one, we’re in perhaps the greatest crisis this country has seen since the Civil or Revolutionary Wars. We are on the precipice of losing this country if we don’t stand up and fight. And I fear for the future of my children. It’s imperiled your future and your children’s future, your grandchildren’s future is on the brink. This country is on the brink of being taken over by a communist government and perpetuating their communist agenda. We need to we need to open up our eyes and be very aware of that, that’s what’s happening.” [Jefferson County Republican Men’s Club, 6/7/21] (VIDEO)

On Several Occasions, Aadland Publicly Stated That He Hid His Belief That The 2020 Election Was Stolen While On The Campaign Trail So As Not To Dissuade Voters From Supporting Him
Aadland, Talking About His Belief That Biden’s Presidency Was “Illegitimate”: “I Don’t Always Use This Kind Of Language On The Campaign Trail Because I Am So Deliberate With What I Say Because The Consequences Of Not Winning Are So Significant”

June 2022: Aadland: “We Have An Illegitimate Government In Power” And “I Don’t Always Use This Kind Of Language On The Campaign Trail Because I Am So Deliberate With What I Say Because The Consequences Of Not Winning Are So Significant.” AADLAND: “[0:33] So when I saw what transpired in the 2020 elections, how they were undermined by fraud, how they were corrupted, and now we have an illegitimate government in power. Aadland Said That He Had To Be “Extremely Strategic” About Hiding His Stance On Election Fraud So That He Could Make It To Congress And Make Policy Changes That “Don't Appeal To The Broader Constituency In District 7”

AADLAND: “[45:02] One of the issues that’s very difficult to maneuver is election integrity. The reality is that most Coloradans, most of the voters or constituents of District 7, that’s not their focus. They don’t think that the election was rigged. So it can be one of those issues that if we make it too center, it can affect the outcome of the election and our ability to win. Youngkin was very strategic on what he focused on. We have to be careful about shooting ourselves in the foot while we’re not in a position of power. When we take our power back that’s when we can actually do something about it. We have to find a way to connect with our independent voters and even a slice of the left and so the media is not our friend. They’re gonna do everything they can to make me look like a right-wing nutjob. They’re going to try to put me in a corner and so I have to be extremely strategic on threading a needle with our messaging and picking my battles very deliberately so that I can actually get into a position and make a difference and influence a lot of these issues that we care about as conservatives that don’t appeal to the broader constituency in District 7. […] I’m very careful with what I don’t say. So many radio talk show hosts make it very hard. Last time- Brauchler was chasing me.” [Grace Covenant Church Meet & Greet, 4/25/22] (AUDIO)

Aadland Said That He Would “Lose The Election” If He Campaigned On The 2020 Election Being “Rigged,” Even Though He Believed It Himself

AADLAND: “[10:20] Trump is the trigger issue in this conversation. To me its not about Trump, its about were the elections serving the American people. The elections were stolen- they weren’t stolen from Trump, they were stolen from the American people. But the reality of the situation is the majority of people in this state don’t believe the elections were rigged. So if I go out as a candidate for office campaigning on election integrity, I will lose the election. Doesn’t mean that I don’t say the truth, it means I want to connect with independents and the slice that are left to vote for me.” [Aadland for Congress Leadville Meet & Greet, 5/20/22] (AUDIO)

When Aadland Was Pressed By A Radio Host On Whether The 2020 Election Was Stolen, Aadland Dodged The Question Multiple Times And Said He Could Not Definitively Say Whether It Was Rigged
When Asked If The 2020 Election Was Stolen, Aadland Dodged The Question And Said “I Think That’s The Wrong Word.” “[6:56] Question: was the 2020 Election for President stolen? Does Erik Aadland think it was? Or think it was not?” Aadland: ‘I think that’s the wrong word, George, and I’m not dodging the question. I think that it was negatively influenced through a lot of different mechanisms that made it grossly unfair and so this is not a matter of President Trump. What this is is a matter of making sure we have secure elections for the American people.’ [George Show, 4/7/22] (AUDIO)

April 2022: After Being Pressured Over Whether The 2020 Election Was A Product Of Fraud, Aadland Dodged Multiple Times And Said He Questioned The Validity Of The Election, But Could Not Definitively Say Whether Fraud Influenced The Outcome. “[9:36] George: Was the 2020 outcome a product of fraud. And if it was, in the election system, what was the fraud?’ Aadland: ‘Well there was fraud in the election, there’s fraud in every election.’ George: ‘Yeah but, but enough to impact the outcome? … But At A Private Event Later On, Aadland Referenced The Interview Where He Was Pressed On Election Fraud And Said The Host Was “Chasing” Him On Divulging His Views And Said “I’m Very Careful With What I Don’t Say”

April 25th, 2022: On His More Radical Views, Aadland Said “I’m Very Careful With What I Don’t Say” And Said Radio Host George Brauchler Was “Chasing” Him On Divulging His Radical Views On Election Fraud. “[45:02] One of the issues that’s very difficult to maneuver is election integrity. The reality is that most Coloradans, most of the voters or constituents of District 7, that’s not their focus. They don’t think that the election was rigged. Aadland Advocated For Policies That Would Harm Voting Rights And Make It More Difficult To Vote

Aadland Supported Implementing Voter ID Laws “In Every State”

Aadland: “I’d Like To See Voter ID Laws Implemented In Every State.” “[19:25] Question: What sort of reforms or changes would you like to see implemented in order to secure our elections and for the American people to have faith in them.’ Aadland: ‘I’d like to see voter ID laws implemented in every state, I’d like to see ballot harvesting made illegal, I mean, only U.S. citizens should be able to vote. I think you have to make sure the system is very secure from start to finish.” [All Ears Podcast, 4/21/22]
ACLU: Voter ID Laws “Deprive Many Voters Of Their Right To Vote” And “Reduce Participation.”

“Voter ID laws deprive many voters of their right to vote, reduce participation, and stand in direct opposition to our country’s trend of including more Americans in the democratic process. Many Americans do not have one of the forms of identification states acceptable for voting. These voters are disproportionately low-income, racial and ethnic minorities, the elderly, and people with disabilities. Such voters more frequently have difficulty obtaining ID, because they cannot afford or cannot obtain the underlying documents that are a prerequisite to obtaining government-issued photo ID card.” [ACLU, accessed 7/19/22]

Aadland: “I Want To Stand Against The Centralization And Federalization Of Our Elections.”

“...We’re a nation of immigrants, but at the end of the day we have to put his country first. We gotta protect our borders. Election integrity is fundamental to a free and functioning republic. If we don’t have it we don’t have a free country. So we must secure our elections. So a Congressman I want to stand against the centralization and federalization of our elections. It needs to stay at the state level.” [Fairplay American Legion, 5/5/22] (AUDIO)

Aadland Advocated For Voter Purges And Said “We Need To Clean The Voter Rolls.”

“We need to make ballot harvesting illegal. It’s a technique that Democrats have perfected to influence the outcome of our elections. It introduces unfairness into it and it introduces rampant opportunity for fraud. We also need to implement voter ID laws. The only ones who should vote are American citizens and they should only vote once. And we also need to clean the voter rolls.” [Aadland for Congress, Tele-Townhall, 6/22/22] (AUDIO)

Brennan Center For Justice: “Voter Purges Are An Often-Flawed Process Of Cleaning Up Voter Rolls By Deleting Names From Registration Lists.”

“Voter purges are an often-flawed process of cleaning up voter rolls by deleting names from registration lists. While updating registration lists as voters die, move, or otherwise become ineligible is necessary and important, when done irresponsibly — with bad data or when two voters are confused for the same person — the process can knock eligible voters off the roll en masse, often with little notice. Many voters discover they’re no longer listed only when they arrive at the polling place. As a result, many eligible Americans either don’t vote or are forced to cast provisional ballots.” [Brennan Center for Justice, accessed 7/20/22]

Aadland Sympathized With Insurrectionists And Proud Boys, Called Them “The Good Guys,” And Said That They Were “Political Prisoners,” And Even Hired An Insurrectionist

Aadland Said: The arrests of the Proud Boys after the Capitol insurrection were examples of “leftist censorship and government overreach.” "[50:08] Question: I was wondering if you think the recent arrests of the Proud Boys is just another example of Leftist censorship and government overreach?” Aadland: “Yes, Carol I do. Because they’re not treating BLM or Antifa the same way. And this is about justice needing to be blind. And it's clearly not, justice should be applied to those who break the law. Not because somebody is part of a group they have the freedom to participate and be part of a group, but if that group is practicing violent behavior. I don't care whether it's the proud boys or Antifa they need to be treated the same way and prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law. Criminality shouldn't be allowed for the view of the day, justice must be blind. And that is accomplished through an impartial judicial system and the process of trial by jury. So if somebody commits a crime, they need to be prosecuted and justice needs to be blind.” [YouTube, 6/7/22] (AUDIO)

- Southern Poverty Law Center: The Proud Boys Were An Hate Group That Spouted White Nationalism, Anti-Muslim, And Misogynistic Rhetoric. “The Proud Boys’ actions belie their disavowals of bigotry: Rank-and-file Proud Boys and leaders regularly spout white nationalistic memes and maintain affiliations with known extremists. They are known for anti-Muslim and misogynistic rhetoric. Proud Boys have appeared alongside other hate groups at extremist gatherings such as the “Unite the Right” rally in Charlottesville, Virginia. Former Proud Boys member Jason Kessler helped organize that event, which brought together a broad coalition of extremists including Neo-Nazis, antisemites and militias.” [Southern Poverty Law Center, accessed 7/20/22]

Colorado Times Recorder: Aadland Followed The Proud Boys On His Parler Account. “Aadland follows the well-known Parler site of the Proud Boys, whose leaders face “seditious conspiracy” charges for their involvement in the Jan. 6 riot at the U.S. Capitol. Several members of the group have been arrested for their alleged roles in organizing the insurrection.” [Colorado Times Recorder, 7/19/22]

Aadland Said That The U.S. Government Was “Gestapo-Like” In Its Treatment Of Insurrectionists

Aadland Said That The Government Was “Gestapo-Like” In Its Treatment Of Insurrectionists. AADLAND: “[46:11] Regardless of how you see it, it's a tragedy to this nation. The media has not reported accurately and the Capitol police let people into the building. 99% of the protestors on January 6th, one of which is on my team, I won't say who, was protesting peacefully. I watched Trump’s speech that day. He was still speaking when the incursion in the Capitol happened. I don’t condone the actions of the day but it's disturbing to me that there were essentially over 600 political prisoners not given a speedy trial, held in solitary confinement without due process. This should never happen in this country. It must never happen again. Regardless of what you do, regardless of the crime you commit, you deserve a free and fair trial. These were gestapo-like actions. This was a tragedy for our nation but as your Congressman I will investigate it and get to the root of it and see that justice is done for the good guys. Make sure we know the real facts. This investigation that was conducted under the Democrats in Congress was an atrocious scam.” [YouTube, 5/9/22] (AUDIO)

Colorado Sun: Aadland Said “The Federal Government Had Deployed ‘Gestapo-Like Tactics.” “I don't condone the actions on Jan. 6, but it's deeply disturbing to me that there were essentially over 600 political prisoners not given (a) speedy trial, held in solitary confinement without due process. This should never happen in this country and must never happen again.’ He also said the federal government had deployed ‘Gestapo-like tactics.” [Colorado Sun, 7/5/22]

Aadland Said That January 6th Insurrectionists Were “Political Prisoners”

Aadland Said That January 6th Insurrectionists Were “Political Prisoners.” “Thus far, 865 people have been charged for their actions on Jan. 6, but some conservatives have claimed those charges are political persecution. ‘It’s an unacceptable breach of due process of law, their constitutional right to a speedy trial,’ said congressional candidate Erik Aadland of Jan. 6 prisoners during the Teller County Big Tent Event last weekend. ‘The fact that they haven’t been able to post bond is unconscionable. These are political prisoners, and I’m going to do as much as I can to draw a light to this. It’s unconscionable that it’s happened here in this country.’” [Colorado Times Recorder, 6/15/22]

Colorado Sun: Aadland “Attacked Federal Authorities For How They Handled Those Arrested In The Wake Of The Attack, Calling Them ‘Political Prisoners.” “Erik Aadland, an Army veteran who is the Republican nominee in the 7th Congressional District, called the Jan. 6, 2021, riot at the U.S. Capitol “a tragedy for this nation.” But speaking at a primary candidate forum in May he also attacked federal authorities for how they handled those arrested in the wake of the attack, calling them ‘political prisoners.” [Colorado Sun, 7/5/22]

Aadland Believed That Capitol Security Let Insurrectionists Into The Capitol And That There Were “Plants” In The Crowd Encouraging Rioters To Enter The Building

Aadland Agreed With The Statement That Security Let Insurrectionists Into The Capitol And The Fact That “There Were Plants In The Crowd Encouraging Them To Do It.” “[30:29] Question: We were talking about the second amendment right and January 6th. These people are considered insurrectionists because they walked through an open gate with security guards welcoming them in. Did some of them do things that were wrong? Of course, but that's because there were plants in the crowd encouraging them to do it. Now they are treated as less than humans.” Aadland: ‘They sure were. Over 600 individuals were not given a speedy trial. The government has been given police powers in contradiction to the constitution. A lot of this was due to the Patriot Act. The U.S. The Constitution is never suspended for any reason.” [YouTube, 3/26/22] (AUDIO)

Aadland Said He Would Support A Congressional Investigation Into The Capitol Police Officer Who Shot January 6th Insurrectionist Ashli Babbitt

Aadland Said He Would Support A Congressional Investigation Into The Capitol Police Officer Who Shot January 6th Insurrectionist Ashli Babbitt. “Host: As a Congressman or woman, would you support or carry an initiative for Congress to hold a formal independent investigation and potential prosecution of the D.C. officer who executed U.S. Airforce veteran Ashli Babbitt? Aadland: ‘I’d support it. I don’t agree that it’s a yes or no question because Congress doesn’t have those powers to prosecute but I would support an initiative to investigate.” [Jeffco Liberty Coalition Debate, 2/12/22] (VIDEO)

- Associated Press: Babbitt Was Fatally Shot “While Attempting To Climb Through The Broken Window Of A Barricaded Door Leading To The Speaker’s Lobby Inside The Capitol.” “Babbitt, 35, was fatally shot while attempting to climb through the broken window of a barricaded door leading to the Speaker’s Lobby inside the Capitol, where police officers were evacuating members of Congress from the mob supporting Trump’s false claim that the 2020 presidential election was stolen. She was one of five people who died during or immediately after the riot, including a Capitol Police officer. [Associated Press, 1/3/22]

- Associated Press: The Officer That Shot Babbitt Was “Cleared Of Any Wrongdoing By Two Prior Federal Investigations.” “Trump has called her “an incredible person” and he even taped a posthumous birthday greeting to her in October. Trump has also demanded the Justice Department reinvestigate Babbitt’s death, though the officer who shot her was cleared of any wrongdoing by two prior federal investigations. But the life of the Air Force veteran from California, who died while wearing a Trump campaign flag wrapped around her shoulders like a cape, was far more complicated than the heroic portrait presented by Trump and his allies.” [Associated Press, 1/3/22]

Aadland Held A Managing Role For Noble Energy When The Company Spilled 7,500 Gallons Of Crude Oil Into The Poudre River In Colorado

Aadland Said That He Would “Protect Colorado’s Lakes, Rivers, And Streams”

“Aadland: “I Will Protect Colorado’s Lakes, Rivers, And Streams, Land, And Air.” “I love the state of Colorado with all its natural beauty and grandeur. I will protect Colorado’s lakes, rivers, and streams, land, and air. We must effectively manage our forests so that we do not have to fear destructive wildfires. We can protect the environment with smart regulations without throttling industry and productivity.” [Aadland for Colorado, accessed 7/14/22]

2012-2015: Aadland Worked As A Drilling Engineer For Noble Energy In Colorado’s DJ Basin

August 2012-April 2015: According To His LinkedIn, Aadland Worked As Drilling Engineer At Noble Energy.

- As Drilling Engineer At Noble Energy, Aadland Developed Plans For “A Multi-Million Dollar (Per Well) Horizontal-Well Drilling Operation In The DJ Basin, Colorado.” “Developed operational well-plans and managed the technical aspects for a multi-million dollar (per well) horizontal-well drilling operation in the DJ Basin, Colorado. Managed the operator-contractor relationships required to execute a horizontal-well drilling operation, to include directional services, mud services, solids control services and several other ancillary services. Conducted technical special projects in support of the drilling group, to include BHA design analysis, rotary-steerable system use cost analysis, connection-time analysis, and liner-run torque and drag models.” [LinkedIn, accessed 7/14/22]

2014: A Damaged Tank Owned By Noble Energy Dumped “7,500 Gallons Of Crude Oil Into The Poudre River” In Weld County, Colorado. “A storage tank damaged by floodwaters dumped 7,500 gallons of crude oil into the Poudre River near Windsor in northern Colorado, slickening vegetation a quarter-mile downstream, but apparently not affecting any drinking water, state officials said Friday. [...] The tank's operator, Noble Energy Inc., discovered the spill Friday and reported it to state officials. Colorado Oil and Gas Conservation Commission officials and state Department of Public Health and Environment water quality staff responded, along with a Noble Energy response team, Hartman said.” [Associated Press, 6/21/14]

- HEADLINE: “Colorado’s Only Designated Scenic River Damaged From Oil Spill.” “Cache La Poudre river is the only river in Colorado designated as naturally made and the only scenic river in the state. Through years of time and erosion the river created the scenic Poudre canyon with steep cliffs and is a favorite spot of white water rafting. According to the website RT.com, Noble Energy stated they believe the high waters of the river was the cause of the spill. The storage tank had dropped from it’s foundation and broke a discharge valve causing the tank to completely drain it’s contents into the river.” [Digital Journal, 6/24/14]

2015: “Noble Energy Had The Most Spills” Of All Oil And Gas Operators In Colorado

2015: Denver Post: “Noble Energy Had The Most Spills” Of Oil And Gas Operators In Colorado. “More than 700 spills were reported at oil and gas operations in Colorado last year, according to the latest data compiled from a state database by the Center for Western Priorities. [...] Five operators in Colorado caused 51 percent of all the spills reported last year. Noble Energy had the most spills, followed by Kerr McGee, WPX Energy, Pioneer Natural Resources and Bonanza Creek.” [Denver Post, 1/14/15]

2021: Noble Energy Was Sued By The Federal Government For The 2014 Oil Spill In Weld County

2021: The Federal Government Filed A Lawsuit Against Noble Energy Over A 2014 Oil Spill In Weld County. “The federal government has filed suit against Noble Energy Inc. and related subsidiaries over a spill in 2014 and over failure to have required spill response plans and resources in place. The violations of federal clean water law, if upheld in court, could amount to fines in the billions of dollars. The suit was filed in federal court in Denver Tuesday. Oil giant Chevron Corp. purchased Noble Energy for $5 billion in October 2020 and made it part of its Rockies Business Unit. It and its related companies operate as wholly owned subsidiaries of Chevron. Noble is the second largest oil producer in the state, with most of its operations in Weld County. The violations allegedly occurred in Weld County, according to the suit. [Loveland Reporter-Herald, 8/11/21]

Aadland Repeatedly Pushed Dangerous Misinformation About Covid-19 And Supported The Widely Discredited Use Of Ivermectin As A Treatment For The Disease

Aadland Frequently Pushed Misinformation About Covid-19

Aadland Falsely Claimed That The Delta Variant Of Covid-19 Was Less Dangerous Than The Original Strain Of The Virus

The CDC Said The Delta Variant Was Twice As Contagious As Previous Covid-19 Variants And Data Suggested It May Cause More Severe Illness Than Previous Variants In Unvaccinated People.
variant is more contagious: The Delta variant is highly contagious, more than 2x as contagious as previous variants. Some data suggest the Delta variant might cause more severe illness than previous variants in unvaccinated people. In two different studies from Canada and Scotland, patients infected with the Delta variant were more likely to be hospitalized than patients infected with Alpha or the original virus that causes COVID-19. Even so, the vast majority of hospitalization and death caused by COVID-19 are in unvaccinated people." [Centers for Disease Control, 8/26/21]

National Geographic: The Delta Variant “Is One Of The Most Infectious Respiratory Viruses Known, It Causes More Severe COVID-19 Than Other Variants, And It Is More Likely To Evade Antibodies.” "As the United States battles a fourth surge of COVID-19, scientists are learning much about the Delta variant that wasn’t known when it was first reported in India in March: it is one of the most infectious respiratory viruses known, it causes more severe COVID-19 than other variants, and it is more likely to evade antibodies. Evidence of all these traits is clear. The Delta variant has caused a sharp rise in COVID-19 cases, hospitalizations, and deaths across the U.S. and the rest of the world." March 2022: Aadland Shared A Video Of Governor DeSantis Spreading Covid-19 Misinformation With A Panel Of Widely Discredited Doctors And Scientists.

Dr. Tracy Hoeg, Who Attended DeSantis' Roundtable Was Reported To Have Used Flawed Data And Had Several “Potential Conflicts Of Interest” In Her Research On Coronavirus Vaccines. “One panelist, a California doctor named Tracy Beth Hoeg, talked about a study that she authored on the risks of myocarditis, an inflammation of the heart muscle, after some people, especially boys, received coronavirus vaccines. […]"
Florida Surgeon General Joseph Ladapo, Who Attended DeSantis’ Roundtable, Drew Criticism Over His Resistance “To Covid-19 Mandates For Vaccines And Masks And Other Health Policies Endorsed By The Federal Government.” “Florida Surgeon General Joseph Ladapo was confirmed to his position Wednesday, as Senate Republicans approved the nomination of the state’s top doctor over criticism that his opposition to coronavirus mandates is too aligned to the politics of Gov. Ron DeSantis. Ladapo, who was appointed by DeSantis in September, has drawn intense scrutiny over his shared resistance with the governor to COVID-19 mandates for vaccines and masks and other health policies endorsed by the federal government. [Associated Press, 2/23/22]

Dr. Robert Malone, Who Attended DeSantis’ Roundtable, Compared Biden’s Pandemic Response “To Nazi Germany.” “Malone had a following before his “Joe Rogan Experience” interview that was released Dec. 31 — but that show introduced him to an even wider audience. On it, he promoted an unfounded theory called “mass-formation psychosis,” telling Rogan that a “third of the population [is] basically being hypnotized” into believing what the mainstream media and Anthony S. Fauci, the nation’s top infectious-disease expert and chief medical adviser to President Biden, report on the vaccines. Malone went on to compare the country’s pandemic policies to Nazi Germany. His remarks drew massive attention — and outrage.” [Washington Post, 1/24/22]

Dr. Jay Bhattacharya, Who Attended DeSantis’ Roundtable, Was A Co-Author Of The Great Barrington Declaration, A Strategy To Address Covid-19 That “Was Widely Condemned By Scientists Around The Globe” For Being “Nonsense” And “Very Dangerous.” “The Great Barrington Declaration touted a strategy called “focused protection,” which encouraged governments to lift lockdown restrictions on young and healthy people while continuing to restrict vulnerable groups. This strategy promoted the spread of COVID-19 in populations where it is less likely to be deadly, encouraging widespread immunity that did not depend on vaccination, the authors argued. The Great Barrington Declaration was widely condemned by scientists around the globe, and NIAID Director Anthony Fauci, MD, referred to it as ‘nonsense’ and ‘very dangerous.’ However, the previous White House administration embraced it for a period of time. The declaration was signed at a summit in Great Barrington, Massachusetts, and hosted by the American Institute of Economic Research (AIER) — although the AIER maintained that there were no financial ties. AIER, a libertarian, free-market think tank, has a long history of denying science on climate change. […] Joining Kulldorff as a senior scholar at the Brownstone Institute is Jay Bhattacharya, MD, PhD, of Stanford University, who is also a co-author of the Great Barrington Declaration. [MedPage Today, 11/11/21]

In fact, a major contribution of 20th-century science has been to expand upon and further elucidate this principle that has been known since the ancient world. Its stated mission is ‘constructively to come to terms with what happened, understand why, discover and explain alternative paths, and prevent such events from happening again.’ It currently publishes articles that criticize COVID lockdowns, question vaccine mandates, and describe masking as ‘an attack on our communal life.’ That may not be surprising given its strong ties to the Great Barrington Declaration, a document published last year that advocated lifting all lockdown restrictions on the young and healthy in a bid for promoting natural immunity.” [MedPage Today, 11/11/21]

Aadland Seemingly Supported The Use Of Ivermectin To Treat Covid-19 Despite FDA Warnings That It Was Dangerous And Not Effective In Treating The Disease

Aadland Retweeted A Conservative TV Host Who Claimed The FDA Was Lying To Americans About Ivermectin

November 2021: Aadland Retweeted A Post That Said “Ivermectin Has Been Prescribed Hundreds Of Millions Of Times And A Nobel Prize Was Won For Its Efficacy On Humans.”

The FDA Warned That Ivermectin Was “Dangerous” And Data Did Not Show That Ivermectin Was Even Effective Against Covid-19

- Food And Drug Administration: “Taking Large Doses Of Ivermectin Is Dangerous.” “The FDA has not authorized or approved ivermectin for use in preventing or treating COVID-19 in humans or animals. Ivermectin is approved for human use to treat infections caused by some parasitic worms and head lice and skin conditions like rosacea. Currently available data do not show ivermectin is effective against COVID-19. Clinical trials assessing ivermectin tablets for the prevention or treatment of COVID-19 in people are ongoing. Taking large doses of ivermectin is dangerous. [FDA, accessed 7/12/22]

- Wisconsin Examiner: Senator Ron Johnson Pushed Ivermectin As A Treatment For COVID-19 Despite FDA Warnings That It Was Dangerous And Not To Use It. "Sen. Ron Johnson has made multiple podcast and radio appearances this week in which he pushes Ivermectin as a treatment for COVID-19 while fear mongering about vaccinations. And he’s continued to do so, even after clear warnings that his message is dangerous. Johnson, who has regularly argued for the use of unproven drugs such as Hydroxychloroquine and Ivermectin as treatments for COVID-19, appeared on the shows of Wisconsin right wing radio host Vicki McKenna and Washington Times opinion editor Cheryl Chumley to criticize the Food and Drug Administration (FDA)’s decision to fully authorize Pfizer’s COVID-19 vaccine and advocate for people to take Ivermectin to treat the disease. Ivermectin is commonly used to deworm livestock, and although it is approved for use in humans to treat parasitic infection, has not been shown to be effective at preventing COVID-19 infection or treating patients with the disease. This week, following a prominent push by figures such as Johnson on right wing media outlets such as Fox News, the FDA was forced to put out a warning against the use of Ivermectin."

CDGOP Statement on Biden’s Ridiculous COVID Vaccine Mandate

Greenwood Village, CO – Colorado GOP Chairwoman Kristi Burton Brown released the following statement opposing President Biden’s ridiculous COVID vaccine mandate:

“The poor decisions made by the Biden-Harris Administration continue to astound me every day. This latest decision is a shocking federal invasion into the rights of both businesses and individuals. I know it’s a lot to ask, but Erik needs your help right now. Winning back Colorado and the Majority in the U.S. Senate isn’t going to be easy, but it’s so critical right now if we really want to win our country back so we can start serving the people again, instead of politicians.

I know Erik can be a hard-working super soldier, but he’s human just like the rest of us, and losing those 2 weeks while being stuck in bed the whole time really hurt his numbers. That’s why if you’re able to please pitch in anything to help Erik so we can get this show back on the road to winning the U.S. Senate and flipping Colorado back to red.

It’s the little things that count these days, and right now just a little bit of help would go a long way for Erik, even if it’s just a prayer. With that being said, I’m grateful for your time and for everything you’ve done to support Erik on his campaign for the U.S. Senate, it truly means a lot to him and our family.

Aadland Seemingly Aligned With Russia And Putin During The Invasion And Said That They Are Not “The Demons They’re Made Out To Be”

Aadland: “I Don’t Think Putin And Russia Are The Demons They’re Made Out To Be.” “[11:07] At the end of the day this is a much more complex situation than it’s made out to be. We need to be descalating it not escalating it. I don’t think Putin and Russia are the demons they’re made out to be. I see Russia acting in its own self-interest. That doesn’t mean that I think Putin and Russia is good and that we should make friends with them or that we should condone their actions.” [All Ears Podcast, 4/21/22] (AUDIO)

Aadland Downplayed News Of Russia’s Invasion Of Ukraine And Said “No Intelligence Indicates This Is Anything More Than A Skirmish”

February 24th, 2022: On Russia’s Invasion Of Ukraine, Aadland Said That “No Intelligence Indicates This Is Anything More Than A Military Skirmish.” “As a combat veteran, I have seen the horrors of war firsthand, and they are not to be taken lightly. What we are currently seeing in Ukraine right now does not justify a full-scale war with Russia. No intelligence indicates this is anything more than a military skirmish. Those who have never served in war should be very cautious about advocating for military action. This is nothing more than ‘wag the dog,’ and could easily have been avoided through better leadership.”

Statement on Ukraine:

As a combat veteran, I have seen the horrors of war firsthand, and they are not to be taken lightly. What we are currently seeing in Ukraine right now does not justify a full-scale war with Russia. No intelligence indicates this is anything more than a military skirmish. Those who have never served in war should be very cautious about advocating for military action. This is nothing more than “wag the dog,” and could have easily been avoided through better leadership.

First, we need to exhaust all diplomatic solutions and economic sanctions. We must also be clear on the U.S. interests in Ukraine that would cause us to get more deeply involved. Additionally, we have to be ready for war by rearming the Keystone pipeline and becoming energy independent once again. Then, and only then, when our country is secure with energy and our military is prepared, and we have determined that U.S. interests would best be served, should we have further involvement. What are we trying to achieve in Ukraine and how are U.S. interests best served? Those are the questions that must be answered before American lives are put on the line.

Aadland Opposed Bipartisan Gun Reforms, Said That School Shootings Were Caused By A Lack Of Spirituality In Public Schools, And Made His Own “Ghost Guns”

Aadland Supported Arming Teachers And Reinstating School Prayer As Ways To Address School Shootings Which Were Caused By A Lack Of Spirituality In Public Schools

Aadland Supported Arming Teachers As A Way To Address School Shootings. AADLAND: “[3:13] In the short term, we’ve got an issue with these school shootings. And the answer is not gun control. That’s what the left always tries to do- they try to capitalize on these tragic events. They try to increase control, increase power at the federal government level. That’s not the answer. I mean, we just need to look at Chicago. More people are killed due to gun violence every weekend than what happened in this school shooting. Doesn’t take away the tragedy of it but I think we need to secure our schools, we need to ensure that there is law enforcement on every school. We don’t need to make them gun free zones, we need to encourage well trained teachers to be able to carry in order to address this in the short term.” [710 KNUS The George Show, 5/27/22] (AUDIO)

May 2022: Aadland Suggested That A Lack Of Spirituality In Public Schools Was Causing School Shootings. AADLAND: “We have to find ways to address the mental sickness that contributes to such gun violence. We’ve taken spirituality out of our schools. In many ways, we’ve taken morality out of our schools. The left, at the heart of it, the progressives, see human nature very differently than I think most conservatives. We don’t see human beings as strictly animals to be controlled- we see them as spiritual beings. I think the morality in this country needs to be restored. [710 KNUS The George Show, 5/27/22] (AUDIO)

June 2022: Aadland Said He Supported Reinstating School Prayer And Speculated That School Shootings Were Caused By Taking “God Out Of Our School System.” “[5:42] Question: I heard you talk on the radio about how gun violence has increased because they kicked God out of public schools. Do you think we should bring back God into our public schools and introduce a federal mandate for public school prayer?’ Aadland: ‘Well, I want God back in our schools. Matthew I don't want the federal government or government legislating against practicing faith in our school system. I also don't want the government enforcing that either. I believe strongly in our freedom to practice religion, however we see fit. I am a Christian. I'm a man of faith and I'm guided in that respect. In my daily walk, that's extremely important to me. At the same time, I don't want to proselytize or push it on anyone else. So it's striking the right balance and allowing people the freedom to practice their faith, even the school system I think we're witnessing with gun violence and school shootings is extremely tragic and is a result of moral decay in this country, much of which is because the progressives have fought to take virtue and morality and wisdom and God out of our school system and we need to restore that to address the root cause of this violence, mental illness and sickness in many respects is a component of not having grounded in faith and grounded in truth. Aadland Opposed The Bipartisan Gun Law Signed Into Law In June 2022 Saying “I Don’t Support Any Federal Gun Control Legislation.” “[10:26] Question: The senate has reached a tentative framework on gun control which includes closing the boyfriend loophole. Would you support such legislation if you were in congress?” Aadland: ‘No I don’t support any federal gun control legislation or the bill that the senate just passed. It does not address the root causes of gun violence. Look at the cities with the most gun violence, they also have the strictest gun control. I want a wise and grounded well-armed citizenry to defend themselves. It’s a right you are born with. Red flag laws especially infringe on our rights.” [YouTube, 6/22/22] (AUDIO)

Aadland Implied That He Did Not Support Any Restrictions On Gun Ownership And Did Not Support Allowing Victims To Sue Gun Manufacturers

When Asked What Gun Restrictions He Supported, Aadland Said That “Everyone Has An Inherent, Unalienable Right To Defend Themselves” And We Should “Refuse To Give Up Our Ability To Defend Ourselves.”

What restrictions on gun ownership are needed to protect public safety?

Everyone has an inherent, unalienable right to defend themselves. And we know criminals will always find a way to possess guns. Yet, there are those who want to completely disarm our society while they simultaneously move to de-fund law enforcement. We must not only ask why but refuse to give up our ability to defend ourselves. The facts speak for themselves—firearm ownership is proven to deter crime. I will stand resolutely for our right to bear arms. Colorado has a spirit of independence and self-governance, and the Second Amendment is a key component of maintaining our individual freedoms.

Victims of gun violence should be able to sue firearms dealers and manufacturers.

May 2022: The Day After The Uvalde Shooting, Aadland Was Listed As An Attendee To An Event Where An AR-15 Semi-Automatic Rifle Was Being Auctioned Off To Guests

May 25th, 2022: Aadland Was Listed As An Attendee To A Debate And Fundraiser Hosted By The Teller County Republican Party Where An AR-15 Was Being Auctioned Off To The Winner Of A Silent Auction. “To encourage citizens to attend its June 11 ‘Big Tent’ candidate debate, Teller County Republican Party will be once again giving away a semi-automatic AR-15 rifle to the winner of its ‘Awesome Silent Auction.’” The southern Colorado Republican group is not only publicizing the chance to win an assault rifle, but also the “Mouthwatering BBQ Food, and Complimentary Beer and Wine Bar” that will be offered at the event. The event is meant for Republican voters who live in Teller County to meet the candidates running for office and will raise money for the party. All announced candidates have been invited, but as of right now the confirmed candidates are: 7th Congressional District: Erik Aadland, Laurel Imer, Timothy Reichert.” [Colorado Pols, 5/25/22]

May 24th, 2022: 19 Children And 2 Adults Were Killed In A Shooting At Robb Elementary School In Uvalde, Texas. “Nineteen children and two adults were killed in a shooting at Robb Elementary School in Uvalde County on May 24. It is the deadliest shooting ever at a Texas public school. We’re covering updates on this shooting and what it might — and might not — mean for the state’s gun policies.” [Texas Tribune, accessed 7/5/22]

When Asked About Canceling The Rifle Giveaway In Light Of The Uvalde Shooting, Teller County GOP Chair Parnow Stated That The Rifle Being Sold “Wasn’t Used In The Texas Shooting.” “The featured rifle is a Palmetto State Armory PA-15 with a 16” barrel, the minimum length legally allowed without the weapon being considered a short barrel rifle subject to additional federal regulation, including registration. Asked if there had been any discussion of canceling the rifle giveaway in light of yesterday’s massacre at an elementary school in Uvalde, Texas that took the lives of at least 21 people, including 19 children, Teller GOP chair Ross Parnow stated that the rifle ‘wasn’t used in the Texas shooting.” [Colorado Pols, 5/25/22]

May 25th, 2022: Aadland Said That The Uvalde Shooting Was “A Heartbreaking Tragedy” And Sent His “Deepest Sympathies And Prayers” To The Victims. “The Uvalde shooting is a heartbreaking tragedy and my deepest sympathies and prayers go out to the affected students and families.”

May 2022: A Few Days After The Uvalde Shooting, Aadland Retweeted A Post That Said “What Stops Armed Bad Guys Is Armed Good Guys” Despite The Fact That 376 Law Enforcement Officers Were Unable To Stop The Uvalde Shooter From Killing 21 People

Texas Tribune: “376 Law Enforcement Officers” Descended Upon Robb Elementary School In Uvalde, Texas On May 24th, 2022, But “No One Was Able To Stop The Gunman From Carrying Out The Deadliest School Shooting In Texas History.” “In total, 376 law enforcement officers descended upon the school, according to the most extensive account of the shooting to date. It says that better-equipped departments should have stepped up to fill a leadership void after the Uvalde schools police chief failed to take charge. […] No one was able to stop the gunman from carrying out the deadliest school shooting in Texas history, in part because of “systemic failures and egregious poor decision making” by nearly everyone involved who was in a position of power, a new investigation into the shooting has found.” [Texas Tribune, 7/17/22]

Aadland Was A Threat To Education, Advocating For Abolishing The Department Of Education And Defunding Schools Because They Were “Sexualizing Our Children”

Aadland Claimed That Schools Were Sexualizing Children And Should Be Defunded

Aadland Said That The Federal Government Should Get Out Of Education And Schools That Were “Sexualizing Our Children” Or Teaching Critical Race Theory Should Be Defunded. AADLAND: “I want the federal government out of our children’s education. I want great educational opportunities for all children. This push for racist ideologies like CRT have no place in our schools. We need to defund schools that are pushing CRT and sexualizing our children. We need to help them develop critical thinking schools and discernment. Ultimately parents are responsible for that.” [(14:12), YouTube, 6/11/22] (AUDIO)

Aadland: “They Are Sexualizing Our Children.” AADLAND: “[24:08] I have three children. They are 7, 5, and 1. I homeschool our kids. But CRT is a racist ideology and they are sexualizing our children. There is no reason why 5 year olds should be learning sexual education, and there is no reason why they should be learning about gender choices. Do you think we should bring God into our public schools and introduce a federal mandate for public school prayer?’ Aadland: ‘Well, I want God back in our schools. Matthew, I don't want the federal government or government legislating against practicing faith in our school system. I also don't want the government enforcing that either. I believe strongly in our freedom to practice religion; however we see fit. I am a Christian. I'm a man of faith and I'm guided in that respect. In my

June 2022: Aadland Said Obergefell Should Be Overturned

June 22, 2022: Aadland Said He Wanted Obergefell To Be Overturned. “[6:00] Question: My question is do you think the supreme court should overturn Oberfell V Hodges and return the issue of marriage to the states?’ Aadland: ‘That’s a great question Bridgett, for the most part I want the federal government out of marriage. I want them out of marriage all together. I think that's a choice between two people. I want the government out of our bedrooms. Marriage is a pact between two people. So yes, I would restore that to the states and get the federal government out of it. But a great question, one I’m not usually asked.” [Youtube, 6/23/22] (AUDIO)

- Oyez: The Obergefell Case Concluded That “The Fourteenth Amendment Requires Both Marriage Licensing And Recognition For Same-Sex Couples.” “Groups of same-sex couples sued their relevant state agencies in Ohio, Michigan, Kentucky, and Tennessee to challenge the constitutionality of those states' bans on same-sex marriage or refusal to recognize legal same-sex marriages that occurred in jurisdictions that provided for such marriages. The plaintiffs in each case argued that the states' statutes violated the Equal Protection Clause and Due Process Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment, and one group of plaintiffs also brought claims under the Civil Rights Act. In all the cases, the trial court found in favor of the plaintiffs. The U.S. Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit reversed and held that the states' bans on same-sex marriage and refusal to recognize marriages performed in other states did not violate the couples' Fourteenth Amendment rights to equal protection and due process. […] The Fourteenth Amendment requires both marriage licensing and recognition for same-sex couples. [Oyez, accessed 7/19/22]

- June 19th, 2022: 47 House Republicans Voted To Pass A Bill That Would Protect “Legal Protections For Same-Sex Marriages.” “Dozens of Republicans have sided with Democrats in the US House of Representatives to pass a bill that would boost legal protections for same-sex marriages. Democrats have suggested the US Supreme Court could roll back gay marriage rights, but some Republican critics dismissed the bill as a gimmick. America's high court legalised same-sex marriage nationwide in 2015. But last month it quashed a long-held constitutional right to abortion. Prospects for the Respect for Marriage Act look less certain in the finely balanced Senate. Some 47 Republicans joined all Democrats in voting for the measure by 267-157 on Tuesday after Republican leaders allowed party members to vote with their conscience.” [BBC, 7/19/22]

Erik Aadland said that the Affordable Care Act was “the worst written legislation in history” and advocated for the introduction of “free market forces, competition” into healthcare.

Aadland said that the Affordable Care Act was “the worst written legislation in history.” “Utter nonsense. The so-called Affordable Care Act has driven the cost of healthcare through the roof and reduced accessibility for the poorest Americans. It’s the worst written legislation in history. Like most Socialist programs, it’s done the opposite of what Dems promised.”

Aadland advocated for introducing free market forces and competition into healthcare.

Aadland: “We need to introduce free market forces, competition” into healthcare. “[33:49] Question: Okay. Now the second question is related to healthcare, what’s your perception of our current healthcare system? is it expensive compared to what it could be and what can be done about that?” Aadland: “Since the inception of the so-called Affordable Care Act, healthcare for most Americans have become unaffordable. And we’ve gotta address that. A lot of what is happening is the gross over regulation of insurance companies and the reduction of competition within the healthcare marketplace. That’s what driving up costs. So, the answer is not single payer healthcare or a government-run program. Now that might be an option for a certain select few in our society. I’m not saying throw the baby out with the bathwater, but for the most part, we need to introduce free market forces, competition in the marketplace to drive down costs, and that’s by giving people options.” [Aadland For Congress, Tele-Town Hall, 4/19/22] (AUDIO)

Aadland: “We need to reform healthcare” by “increasing competition within the marketplace to drive down costs.” “I want every Coloradan to have access to superb healthcare. We want the best doctors and practitioners to flock to Colorado. For that, we need a competitive health care system that is both affordable and efficient. Unfortunately, we cannot rely on the government to create this outcome—their interventions are not affordable, efficient, or well-planned. Thus, we need to reform health care by removing present drains on the system, as well as increasing competition within the marketplace to drive down costs.” [Aadland for Colorado, Campaign Website, accessed 7/14/22]

Aadland claimed that the federal income tax was unconstitutional despite it being explicitly written into the constitution.
April 2022: Aadland Claimed That The Federal Income Tax Was Unconstitutional. “[9:48] Question: When I say things went to shit ages ago, I think of Income Tax. Income tax is less than 2/5ths of the age of our country. It came about in the early 1900’s, because it was struck down as unconstitutional following the early implementation of it, the first one I believe Abraham Lincoln during the Civil War.’ Aadland: ‘And it is unconstitutional. And it is a drain on American labor and it de-incentivizes our work, ingenuity, effort, right? [Colorado School of Mines College Republicans, 4/27/22] (AUDIO)

I have no qualms about who I serve on this walk. At the end of the day my faith is my core that will keep me uncorruptable in Washington. We Are Up Against Evil.” AADLAND: “[20:56] The fact of the matter is, whether you realize it or not, I figure that most of you are here because you do realize it, we are at war. And in many many ways this is a spiritual war. We are up against evil. And we are up against an enemy that will not sleep, that will not stop. […] We as conservatives all we do is hold the line. Aadland: “We’re In The Trenches Fighting In The Next Revolution” Against Democrats. AADLAND: “[14:54] The Democrats lie, lie, lie. But they lie in a way that people find appealing and compassionate and loving and kind. We’ve gotta change our messaging in a way that is connective, and then bring in all the facts. But if we don’t change the way we talk, we lose. Because this is an information war. They’ve got the media, they’ve got the money. They’ve got a global society against us. Aadland Firmly Aligned Himself With Donald Trump And Adopted His Campaign Slogans And Messaging

Aadland Supported Trump And Said That Trump Inspired Him To Register As A Republican

Axios: Aadland Was “Touting Support For Trump And Hoping To Get Noticed.” “Ron Hanks, first-term state lawmaker, crossed the police line at the Jan. 6 U.S. Capitol riot and is a prominent voice of support for QAnon and election conspiracies. Peter Yu: He ran for the U.S. House in 2018 and lost. In the Senate race, it didn't take him long to find controversy for comments in which he appeared to dismiss racism against Asian Americans. What to watch: Two other candidates, Erik Aadland and Gino Campana, are touting support for Trump and looking to get noticed.” [Axios, 10/20/21]

Aadland: “With All His Flaws, Donald Trump Restored My Hope That We Can Take Back This Country.” “[6:35] With all his flaws, Donald Trump restored my hope that we can take back this country through political action. And that's the way I want to do it. I want to avoid violence at all costs. Because I've seen what it really looks like in combat. I think there are a political means. But as Fred and Casper and others have said, we have to take back and attack every office in this state. There should not be a single office we're not running for. We have to restore it through political action. So I am a newly forged proud Republican, (unintelligible) we need to be advocates for this party and restore the party. Because the fact is, there's plenty of corruption in the Republican party that needs to go. One of my first aims is to attack corruption within the establishment.” [Lincoln County Republican Men’s Club, 6/7/21] (AUDIO)

2021: Aadland “Registered As A Republican The Day After” Trump’s CPAC Speech Where He Announced That He Was Not Starting A Third Party

June 2021: “I Registered As A Republican The Day After” Trump’s CPAC Speech “When He Said That He’s Not Starting A Third Party.” “[5:29] Who are you that we've never heard of you? What is Aadland? I'm ready to face that I understand that's coming in. And I'm going to, I will take the time by outworking everybody to get my name out there and show why I am why I am a good fit. Why am I a perfect fit to be your Senator. But I have a lot of work to do. And I'm going to outwork everybody in this race guaranteed. I can guarantee it. Excuse me. I want to say a few words about Donald Trump, because he's played a pivotal role. I think we're mostly Trump supporters here. He's played a pivotal role in me being here. You're gonna find out over the course of this election, and I was an unaffiliated voter. And then I registered as a Republican the day after his speech at CPAC when he said he's not starting a third party. I said, the Republican Party is my party, I voted Republican my entire life. But I was not all that active within the party politics. And when I moved to Colorado, I chose not to affiliate. In fact, I've lost faith in our political system This was a few years ago.” [Lincoln County Republican Men’s Club, 6/7/21] (AUDIO) mission. My mission is not to orient on the negative, it is to orient on everything that is phenomenal about this country. Everything that is beautiful; virtue, goodness, the amazing United States Constitution, divinely inspired. This grand experiment that we can be– we are the last beacon of hope on this planet. By inviting Tom Tancredo to headline his first official campaign event, Erik Aadland has made it clear that his campaign is more focused on division and hate than representing Coloradans. Does he align with Tancredo's right-wing agenda and proposal to bomb holy sites and potentially kill millions of people?’ Nico Delgado, Colorado Democratic Party spokesperson.” [States News Service, 9/9/21]

September 2021: Aadland Hosted Former Congressman Tom Tancredo To Kick Off His Campaign For U.S. Senate On The 20th Anniversary Of 9/11. “Republican Erik Aadland plans to kick off his 2022 campaign for Colorado's U.S. Senate seat on Saturday at a rally in Lakewood headlined by former U.S. Rep. Tom Tancredo. A decorated Army combat veteran who joined the GOP this spring, Aadland is one of four Republicans running for the nomination to take on Democratic U.S. Sen. Michael Bennet, who is seeking a third term in next year's election. It's his first run for office. Aadland told Colorado Politics that he's formally launching his campaign on the 20th anniversary of the Sept. 11 attacks because of the date's importance. That's right! This guy is hosting former Congressman Tom Tancredo to kick off his campaign for U.S. Senate in Colorado on the 20th anniversary of 9/11.” [ColoradoPolitics, 9/8/21]

2005: Denver Post: Tancredo Was A “World-Famous Race-Baiting Congressman” Who Suggested That “The U.S. Bomb Mecca.” “No one must confuse Tancredo for a terrorist. So he should get a new mug shot. Preferably one with his foot stuffed in his mouth. Colorado’s world-famous race-baiting congressman hit a new low Tuesday. Fresh from suggesting the U.S. bomb Mecca, Saudi Arabia, if terrorists mount a nuclear attack on America, Tancredo asked the federal government to change the design of a 9/11 memorial in Pennsylvania because its crescent shape suggested an Islamic symbol. The memorial will be built where United Flight 93 crashed. The plane went down after passengers overpowered terrorists trying to fly the hijacked jet supposedly into the White House.” [Denver Post, 9/13/05]

2005: Denver Post: Tancredo Said That A “Crescent-Shaped” 9/11 Memorial Should Be Scrapped Because The Hijackers Were “Radical Islamists” And The Design “Will In Fact Make The Memorial A Tribute To The Hijackers Rather Than The Victims.” “A proposed crescent-shaped memorial to 9/11 victims killed in Pennsylvania too closely resembles a key symbol of Islam and should be scrapped because the terrorist hijackers were ‘radical Islamists,’ Colorado Rep. Tom Tancredo said Tuesday. In a letter to the National Park Service, Tancredo said that the plan for the memorial at the site where hijacked United Flight 93 crashed ‘has raised questions in some circles about whether the design, if constructed, will in fact make the memorial a tribute to the hijackers rather than the victims.’ Forty passengers and crew members died in the Sept. 11, 2001, crash after a struggle with terrorists who had commandeered the jet.” [Denver Post, 9/13/05]
• Spokesman For The Council On American Islamic Relations: “Congressman Tancredo Seems To Have Almost An Allergy To Islam.” “Tancredo’s criticism comes less than two months after the Littleton Republican suggested on a Florida talk radio program that the United States should consider bombing Islamic holy sites if extremist Muslims launched a nuclear attack against U.S. cities. ‘Congressman Tancredo seems to have almost an allergy to Islam,’ said Ibrahim Hooper, spokesman for the Council on American Islamic Relations. ‘If he’s so hostile to symbols that are associated with Islam, what does that say about his attitude toward the American Muslim community and Muslims in the state of Colorado?’” [Denver Post, 9/13/05]

Aadland Said He Was Friends With Rep. Lauren Boebert, Who Once Said That She Hoped The QAnon Conspiracy Theory “Is Real” And Supported QAnon

Aadland Said He Was Friends With Lauren Boebert, Who Introduced Him To The Freedom Caucus.
“[25:49] Question: Are you interested in becoming a part of the House Freedom Caucus? A: Lauren Boebert introduced me to the Freedom Caucus and I have since become friends with her and other members of the Freedom Caucus. I love the men and women patriots of the freedom caucus. But this seat will be under attack from the day I take office, so I need to be very deliberate with all of my actions.” [Aadland for Congress, Tele-Townhall, 6/22/22] (AUDIO)

November 2020: Boebert Expressed Support For QAnon And Said She Hoped It “Is Real.” “Republican gun-rights activist Lauren Boebert defeated Democrat Diane Mitsch Bush in Colorado's 3rd Congressional District, according to the Associated Press.Why it matters: Boebert, a first-time candidate who defeated five-term GOP incumbent Rep. Scott Tipton in the state's June primary, has expressed support for the baseless QAnon conspiracy theory, saying in May she hopes it "is real." [Axios, 11/4/20]

Aadland Attended A Fundraiser With Marjorie Taylor Greene, Who Supported QAnon And Was Known As The “QAnon Congresswoman”

August 2021: After Aadland Was Criticized For Attending An Event With Marjorie Taylor Greene, Aadland Said “I’ll Listen To Anyone And Thoughtfully Consider Their Perspective- Including Marjorie Taylor Greene.”
I’m a firm believer in 1st Amendment rights. I’ll listen to anyone and thoughtfully consider their perspective. Including Marjorie Taylor Greene. Doesn’t mean I agree with everything. I fought to protect everyone’s right to free speech. Especially a sitting Congresswoman’s. -EA

January 2021: RollingStone: Marjorie Taylor Greene Supported QAnon And Was “Known In The Mainstream Media As The QAnon Congresswoman.” “Marjorie Taylor Greene has had a busy few days since being sworn into Congress. Known in the mainstream media as the ‘Qanon congresswoman’ due to her support for the baseless far-right conspiracy theory QAnon, which posits the existence of a deep state cabal of left-wing cannibals and pedophiles angling for a new world order, Greene’s first big move in Congress was a dramatic announcement that she was filing for articles of impeachment against President Joe Biden.” [RollingStone, 1/27/21]

Rock Legend Ted Nugent endorses Erik Aadland

April 25, 2022

Today, Republican candidate for Congress Erik Aadland announced the endorsement from one of America’s greatest entertainers and a literal rock star, Ted Nugent.

A legend in Rock ’n’ Roll for over forty years, he has recently become an outstanding and vocal supporter of conservative values such as individual freedom, law & order and a constitutional federal government.

[Aadland for Colorado, 4/25/22]

- May 2022: At A Trump Rally, Nugent Told Fans “I’d Love You More If You Went Forward And Just Went Berserk On The Skulls Of Democrats.” “[0:00] Think of what the enemies of America have done over the last 14 months. And that they didn’t sneak into the White House. They lied. They cheated. They scammed, and every day the Democrats violate their sacred oath to the Constitution. […] So I love you people madly but I’d love you more if you went forward and just went berserk on the skulls of the Democrats and the marxists and the communists.”

Aadland Was Endorsed By Robert Wilkie. “In a statement sent to Erik Aadland’s campaign, Secretary Wilkie said: ‘Erik Aadland is an American leader who loves his state and country and he already has the record to demonstrate this fact,” said former U.S. Secretary of Veterans Affairs, Robert Wilkie. “As a proven combat leader in Iraq and Afghanistan, and an accomplished businessman of international repute, he brings a deep understanding about our place in the world, and he can recognize problems and solve them. This separates him from the usual Washington politician intent on the next office or winning the next election. He’s a champion of the people and veterans, firmly grounded in right and wrong. Without hesitation, I wholeheartedly endorse Erik Aadland for Congress.’” [Aadland for Colorado, 4/28/22]

HEADLINE: Veterans Groups Demand VA Secretary Wilkie Resign After Scathing Report That He Tried To Discredit Assault Victim. “The country’s leading veterans groups — including the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars and Iraq and Afghanistan Veterans of America — echoed the call, saying that Wilkie had breached their trust and could no longer effectively lead an agency responsible for the care of 9 million veterans. ‘It is unfair to expect accountability from the nearly 400,000 VA employees and not demand the same from its top executive,’ wrote American Legion National Commander James W. ‘Bill’ Oxford. ‘Wilkie failed to meet the standard that the veteran who came forward with the complaint deserved. By the promises set forth by his own department, the American Legion believes Secretary Wilkie should resign.’” [Washington Post, 12/12/20]

Covid Relief

“[47:39] Question: ‘There’s been a lot of talk of these corporations that have reaped a lot of the benefits of the policies that have been implemented in the last 2-3 years. Specifically with having basically free money to go borrow and have these crazy smaller rates where they’re getting all these loans. Companies during the time of the pandemic with the PPP loans, corporations were getting a lot of free money that they didn’t have to pay back. [...] What can we do as a nation and the leaders of our nation to ensure that they are looking out for the best interests of the American people and not for corporations?’ Aadland: ‘For those socialists out there, for those that think socialism is a good idea, bailouts and government funding of corporations is not capitalism. And in fact, it’s creating the situation that most liberals I talk to don’t want. I talk to liberals who are afraid of corporations taking over. Well, what do you think the government bailouts do? What do you think that socialism leads to? It’s the union of government and corporations. That is not capitalism, and that is not a free-market society. Aadland Did Not Believe That Representatives Should Be Able To Trade Personal Stock Portfolios

When Asked If Representatives Should Be Able To Trade Personal Stock Portfolios, Aadland Said “No.”

“[35:06] Question: Do you think Congress folks should be trading personal portfolios given the nature of the information they have access to?" Aadland: ‘No. […] Nobody should come out of congress having hundreds of millions of dollars, so there needs to be restrictions against insider trading just like there would be on anybody serving on a corporate board or as part of a corporation.” [Esoteric Quandary Podcast, Youtube, 2/15/22] (VIDEO)

Aadland Admitted That He Did Not “Even Know How We Address The Debt At This Point”

Aadland: “I Don’t Even Know How We Address The Debt At This Point.” “[42:01] We need strong people who can come together in times of crisis and weather the storm. There’s always gonna be hard times, and the more dependency we have on the government, the less self sufficient we are, the less able we are to respond to crises, and the more our children pay by shouldering a debt that- I- I don’t even know how we address the debt at this point, but it’s not by printing more money.” [Esoteric Quandary Podcast, Youtube, 2/15/22] (VIDEO)

Military

Aadland Said The Military Was “Not A Democracy” But Rather “An Arm Of Violence Meant To Go Kill On Behalf Of This Country”

Aadland: “The Military Is Not A Democracy” But Rather “An Arm Of Violence Meant To Go Kill On Behalf Of This Country.” “[22:50] So the question is what am I going to do about ‘wokeism’ in the military- the undermining of our military strength, which is happening. Critical Race theory is now being introduced at West Point and other military academies. It undermines morale and welfare in our ability to fight and win our nations borders and that is unconscionable to me. The military is not a democracy folks. The military is an arm of violence meant to go kill on behalf of this country to make sure our freedoms are secure and the U.S. Constitution is upheld- and be a force for good on this planet.” [Mountain Republican Club, 6/21/22] (AUDIO)

Aadland Said That “Generals And Admirals Who Are More Concerned With Indoctrinating Our Military With Marxist Ideologies” “Better Pray” That He Would Not Win His Senate Election

Aadland Said That He Would Use His Congressional Investigation Powers To “Hunt” Military Officers For “Leaning Way Too Far To The Left”

Aadland: When I’m Elected To Congress, I’m Going To Use My Investigational Powers To Hunt” Military Officers For “Leaning Way Too Far To The Left.” “[23:28] [The Military] is being undermined by Marxist ideologies, by wokeism, by flag officers who are leaning way too far to the left. And when I’m elected to congress, I’m going to use my investigational powers to hunt those flag officers down and make their lives as miserable as possible.” [Mountain Republican Club, 6/21/22] (AUDIO)

Israel

Aadland Said That Muslims “Enjoy A Greater Freedom Than Anywhere Else In The Middle East, Right In Israel”

Aadland: Muslims “Enjoy A Greater Freedom Than Anywhere Else In The Middle East, Right In Israel.” “[1:07] In terms of Israel, I spent about a year and a half working there extensively. I managed a pipeline construction project for a $5 billion offshore project. That made Israel a net exporter of natural gas and wow, I got to know the country very well. I have many dear friends there. And what I recognized having served in the Army and fought in Iraq and also Afghanistan was that Israel is really a model for democracy in the Middle East. In fact, Arabs enjoy, or Muslims enjoy a greater freedom than anywhere else in the Middle East, right in Israel.” [Richard Randall Show, 7/13/22] (AUDIO)

Conspiracy Theories

Aadland Retweeted A Post That Appeared To Insinuate That The Monkeypox Outbreak Was Not A Coincidence.
Aadland Said That The “Power In Washington Is Not Left Or Right. It Is Globalist, And That Includes A Good Portion Of The Republican Party”

Aadland: “The Power In Washington Is Not Left Or Right. It Is Globalist, And That Includes A Good Portion Of The Republican Party.” “[18:55] The power in Washington is not left or right. It is globalist, and that includes a good portion of the Republican party. It’s actively exploiting the division of the American people. It’s fomenting the divide. Fox News is not our friend. They have an agenda, just like CNN or the other liberal networks- to foment division in this country, because it’s exploitative.” [Aadland for Congress Leadville Meet & Greet, 5/20/22] (AUDIO)

Infrastructure

Aadland Said That The Bipartisan Infrastructure Bill Was “Reckless And Abusive Spending”

November 2021: Aadland Said That The Bipartisan Infrastructure Bill Was “Reckless And Abusive Spending That Will Bring Irreparable Harm To Our Economy.” “Thank you @BuckforColorado for standing up to this reckless and abusive spending that will bring irreparable harm to our economy.” [AadlandforCO, Twitter, 11/7/21]

Education

On Student Loan Debt Relief, Aadland Said “We Need To Hold Young People Accountable” For Making “Bad Decisions” And Getting “Degrees That Don’t Serve In The Commercial Marketplace”

When Asked About Student Loan Debt Relief, Aadland Said “We Need To Hold Young People Accountable” For Making “Bad Decisions” And Getting “Degrees That Don’t Serve In The Commercial Marketplace.” “[0:00] Question: What, if anything, should be done about student loan debt?’ Aadland: ‘We’re a country founded on personal responsibility, and when we start forgiving bad decisions and forgiving debt that’s taken on to go pursue degrees that don’t serve in the commercial marketplace, then we de-incentivize making good decisions. We need to hold young people accountable, teach them responsibility. As a young man at 22 I was on the battlefield, leading troops in combat.”
Aadland Said That People Are “Less Accountable For Our Actions” Because “We’ve Removed God From Schools”

Aadland: People Are “Less Accountable For Our Actions” Because “We’ve Removed God From Schools.”
“I’ve thought a lot about this in terms of how we change as a society. And what I’ve seen is we’ve removed god from schools, we’ve removed teaching of right values and morality, we’ve also demonized law enforcement. These are endemic in our society, and I think they lead to a permissiveness where we’re increasingly less accountable for our actions.” [The George Show, 5/27/22]

Aadland Supported School Choice

Aadland: “I Support School Choice.” “Education must be grounded in solid psychological principles. Harmony, kindness, love, and respect only exist in environments where the individual feels secure. (Public school systems currently do little to foster such personal security). I will stand for an educational environment that focuses on character and merit rather than superficial differences. I will advocate for education that develops wisdom and personal responsibility rather than a victim mentality. I am against any curricula which distorts America’s history. I support School Choice.” [Aadland for Colorado, Campaign Website, accessed 7/14/22]

On His Campaign Website, Aadland Said That “The Man-Made Impact On The Environment Is Real And May Have Long Reaching Consequences For The Future Of Humanity”

Aadland: “Man-Made Impact On The Environment Is Real And May Have Long Reaching Consequences For The Future Of Humanity.” “Adverse impacts on our environment are of great concern to me for several reasons: Everyone wants to breathe clean air, drink clean water, and live in places of unpolluted beauty (I especially want this for my children) We have limited resources that may be carelessly depleted, robbing future generations of the energy required to thrive. Man-made impact on the environment is real and may have long reaching consequences for the future of humanity.”

… But He Also Promoted Claims That Climate Crisis Was “Fear-Based Climate Propaganda” And Downplayed The Threat Of Global Warming

Aadland Said That He Cared “Deeply” About The Environment But Said “We Must Rise Above Fear-Based Climate Propaganda.” “Michael Bennet has fought Trump administration rollbacks of radical climate policies—including the Paris Agreement and has supported the Biden administration’s fantasy goal of 100% clean electricity by 2035 as part of an agenda to address the ‘climate crisis’ As the only senator on both the Senate. Democrats’ Special Committee on the Climate Crisis and Senate Climate Solutions Caucus, Michael cast the 2017 deciding vote to place federal anti-drilling methane emission regulations on public lands. Let’s be clear. Colorado people care deeply about the environment, as do I. But we must rise above fear-based climate propaganda.”

Immigration
Aadland Supported Title 42, A Regulation That Has Been Misused By Border Patrol Agents To Expel Immigrants At The Mexican Border “Without Giving Them The Opportunity To Seek Asylum”

March 2022: Aadland Tweeted That “Ending Title 42 Will Be An Absolute Disaster.” “Even Democrats agree: ending Title 42 will be an absolute disaster! Ending the policy will only overwhelm our border facilities & communities, and cripple our national security.”

[3/31/22]

• American Immigration Council: Title 42 Was A Regulation Intended For Disease Control That Ended Up Being Used By Border Patrol Agents To Expel “Individuals Who Arrive At The U.S. Mexico Border Without Giving Them The Opportunity To Seek Asylum.” “On March 20, 2020, the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) issued an emergency regulation to implement a specific aspect of U.S. health law. Section 265 of U.S. Code Title 42 permits the Director of the CDC to ‘prohibit … the introduction’ into the United States of individuals when the director believes that ‘there is serious danger of the introduction of [a communicable] disease into the United States.’ The HHS regulation allows any customs officers—which includes officers of U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) such as Border Patrol agents—to implement any such order issued by the CDC. The same day, CDC Director Robert R. Redfield relied on this regulation to issue an order suspending the ‘introduction’ into the United States of certain individuals who have been in “Coronavirus Impacted Areas.” The order targets individuals who have entered the United States from Canada or Mexico and ‘who would be introduced into a congregate setting’ at a port of entry or in a Border Patrol station. This includes individuals who would normally be detained by CBP after arriving at the border, including asylum seekers, unaccompanied children, and people attempting to enter the United States without inspection. Citing the new CDC order, that same day the Border Patrol began “expelling” individuals who arrive at the U.S.-Mexico border without giving them the opportunity to seek asylum.” [American Immigration Council, 10/15/21]

Aadland Said He Would Support Trump’s Wall On The Southern Border

Aadland Said That He Would Pass “Legislation That Forces The Executive Branch To Finish The Wall.” “[16:14] Question: If elected, what actions would you take, if any, to deal with the current border crisis and address immigration reform in regards to election integrity?” Aadland: ‘First of all we need to pass legislation that forces the executive branch to finish the wall. The wall is an effective deterrent. At the same time we need to effectively resource our border patrol police both with the technology and training in competencies so they can do their job.” [Fairplay American Legion, 5/5/22] (AUDIO)

Social Media

Aadland Promoted Truth Social, Gab, Gettr, And Telegram As “Good Alternatives” For Social Media

In A May 2022 CO-07 GOP Candidate Forum, Aadland Promoted Truth Social, Gab, Gettr, And Telegram As “Good Alternatives” For Social Media. “Big tech has become a political weapon. One of the ways we address it is in the free marketplace. We see sites standing up like Truth Social and Gab and Gettr, and Telegram. And those are good alternatives. And we need to exercise our voice through those platforms in the free market.”

Water

Aadland Said That Israel “Demonstrated How To Preserve Water” Without “Onerous Government Involvement” And Planned To Model Their Example For Water Preservation

Aadland Said That Israel “Demonstrated How To Preserve Water” Without “Onerous Government Involvement” And Planned To Model Their Example For Water Preservation. “Water is the lifeblood of the planet, our country, and our state. We must protect this precious resource and manage it effectively. In seeking solutions to balance supply, demand, and conservation, I plan to draw on my experiences working in Israel. Israel is an extremely arid country that has nonetheless demonstrated how to preserve water resources with ingenuity and without onerous government involvement. I believe we can do the same here in Colorado.” [Aadland for Colorado, Campaign Website, accessed 7/14/22]

Supreme Court

Aadland, On Justice Clarence Thomas: “I Love This Man For His Character, Courage, Principles, And Fortitude”

Aadland, On Justice Clarence Thomas: “I Love This Man For His Character, Courage, Principles, And Fortitude.” “I love this man for his character, courage, principles, and fortitude…and for choosing the harder right against enormous political pressure, standing up to the ruthless and hateful radicals who believe that “by any means necessary” is justification for the worst wrongs.”
Energy

Aadland Claimed That Fossil Fuels Provided Clean Energy More Efficient And Less Harmful To The Environment Than “So-Called Renewables”

Aadland: “Fossil Fuels Such As Natural Gas Provide Clean Energy” More Efficient And Less Harmful To The Environment “Than So-Called Renewables.” “Carbon Dioxide or CO\textsubscript{2} emissions in the United States are down significantly in the last three decades. Fossil fuels such as Natural Gas provide clean energy, orders of magnitude more efficient and less harmful to the environment than many so-called renewables. The earth has generously provided these organic compounds in abundance, and we should use them wisely while using our creativity and ingenuity to find ways to healthfully utilize them while exploring efficient alternatives that can stand alone without government subsidies.” [Aadland for Colorado, Campaign Website, accessed 7/14/22]

Aadland Criticized Biden For His Work To “Demonize Oil And Natural Gas Companies” Amidst Rising Gas Prices

Amidst Rising Gas Prices, Aadland Criticized Biden For His Work To “Demonize Oil And Natural Gas Companies,” Kill The Keystone XL Pipeline, And Revoke Leases On Federal Lands. “In Colorado, leading Republican figures and oil and gas industry executives are claiming stricter environmental regulations have caused gas prices to increase. However, an examination of that claim shows that it is a misleading argument. […] Erik Aadland, a former executive for an oil and gas company and candidate for Colorado’s 7th Congressional District, tweeted criticism towards Joe Biden last week. ‘The Biden administration has done everything in its power to demonize oil and natural gas companies and de-incentivize production in the US, from killing to Keystone XL, revoking leases on federal lands and in the Gulf of Mexico and encouraging undue litigation,’ Aadland tweeted.” [ColoradoPolls, 3/18/22]
Education

Aadland Pursued A Ph.D To Become A Counselor For Veterans And Trauma Victims. “Question: ‘What experience has prepared you for office?’ Aadland: ‘We need wise and determined leadership of character grounded in virtue to face today’s unprecedented challenges with reason-based solutions that uphold our values. I have the broadest range of experience and the most significant leadership credentials of anyone in this race. As an Army officer, I led brave men and women through harm’s way on the battlefields of Iraq and Afghanistan. After that, I built a second career in the energy sector by leading multicultural project teams both in Colorado and all over the world (including Israel). After nearly a decade in the energy sector, I achieved a master’s degree in depth psychology and was pursuing a Ph.D to become a counselor with a desire to work with veterans and trauma victims.’” [Gazette, 6/5/22]

October 2021: Aadland: “I Finished Managing A $300 Million Project In Israel” That “Has Made Israel A Net Exporter Of Natural Gas” And Had “Geopolitical Significance.”
“But I have two children born here and we’ve chosen Colorado because we love this state. So I did about a decade now in oil and natural gas and have finished managing a $300 million project in Israel, a project that has made Israel a net exporter of natural gas. It has geopolitical significance. So I’ve built the pipeline and the gathering facility as part of a $5 billion natural gas project called Leviathan. Now Israel is actually supplying natural gas to Egypt because of that project. So a significant gain for that country. And I'm proud to have been on that.” [Log Cabin Republicans, 10/19/21]

Political Ideology

Aadland Claimed That He Wanted To Be A Candidate Who Was A “Unifying Voice,” And Not “Divisive”

2021: Aadland: “I Want To Be A Unifying Voice And Factor, Not Someone Who Is Divisive.” “A Republican Army veteran from Jefferson County has announced he will seek the Republican nomination to challenge Democrat U.S. Sen. Michael Bennet in next year's election. Erik Aadland, 41, is a West Point graduate and decorated officer[1] who served tours in Afghanistan and Iraq. He now lives in Pine with his family, and until last year he worked for Noble Energy as a project manager. In a Colorado Politics interview, Aadland descried his campaign as a call to duty. 'I think we're in crisis everywhere — at the border; we're in crisis economically,' he told Colorado Politics. 'But the fact is, Americans are fighting Americans. The division and the polarization is at an extraordinary level. I want to be a unifying voice and factor, not someone who is divisive.” [Colorado Peak Politics, 6/9/21]

2021: Aadland Went Through Candidate Training With “America First Republicans”

Aadland “Went Through Candidate Training With America First Republicans” Which Was Founded By Former Congressional Candidate Casper Stockham. “Aadland recently joined the Republican Party, having previously voted independent. He went through candidate training with America First Republicans, which was founded by former congressional candidate Casper Stockham.” [Colorado Peak Politics, 6/9/21]

Aadland Said That He Was “Called By God” To Run For Political Office

“Aadland said he decided to launch a campaign after going through candidate training with America First Republicans, a nonprofit started late last year by perennial GOP congressional nominee Casper Stockham. 'I found America First because I was following Casper on Twitter leading up the 2020 elections and then was somewhat devastated by what transpired in the elections,' Aadland said Monday in an appearance with Stockham on the conservative PJNET Live video podcast. 'I just felt divinely inspired to show up there. Very quickly, he planted a seed that I should run for office,' Aadland said, referring to Stockham, who ran unsuccessfully against U.S. Rep. Ed Perlmutter last year and lost a bid for state Republican Party chairman in April. 'I think I'm called by God and it's been a series of synchronicities and meeting the right people and not making this decision on my own,’ he said.” [ColoradoPols, 6/9/21]

Aadland Said That “There’s A Good Number” Of Members Of The Freedom Caucus That He Would “Like To See As Speaker Of The House.” “[55:18] Question: If the Republicans take back the House, who do you support for Speaker?’ Aadland: […] ‘I don’t know who I’ll support for Speaker of the House- because I’m not there. It’s one thing to look at all the information on the media and make that judgement and say that Kevin McCarthy is not the right guy. And I have felt that at times. But until I’m in that seat with complete information, I’m not exactly sure who I’d support. Lauren Boebert introduced me to the Freedom Caucus when I was in Washington D.C. I’m basically worried about MCCarthy, who is basically Paul Ryan’s right hand and we saw how Paul Ryan basically stabbed President Trump in the back. So what are your thought about that?’ Aadland: ‘I certainly have concerns, Derek, about the establishment Republicans who are not serving their constituents, not upholding the U.S. Constitution, not standing up to progressives who are driving us down this road to destruction. […] I mean I would love to see a guy like Jim Jordan be the Speaker of the House, but I am gonna have to be very strategic in building coalitions with like-minded people who will uphold the Constitution.” [Aadland for Congress, Tele-Townhall, 6/22/22]

So he should get a new mug shot. Preferably one with his foot stuffed in his mouth. Colorado’s world-famous race-baiting congressman hit a new low Tuesday. Fresh from suggesting the U.S. bomb Mecca, Saudi Arabia, if terrorists mount a nuclear attack on America, Tancredo asked the federal government to change the design of a 9/11 memorial in Pennsylvania because its crescent shape suggested an Islamic symbol. Tom Tancredo said Tuesday. In a letter to the National Park Service, Tancredo said that the plan for the memorial at the site where hijacked United Flight 93 crashed ‘has raised questions in some circles about whether the design, if constructed, will in fact make the memorial a tribute to the hijackers rather than the victims.’ Forty passengers and crew members died in the Sept. 11, 2001, crash after a struggle with terrorists who had commandeered the jet.” [Denver Post, 9/13/05]

An important message from Erik Aadland

When I began my journey to serve as an elected official, I did it to honor the path I took when I served in the military. I learned strength on the battlefields of Iraq and Afghanistan that sacrifice is required to win any fight. We are in a fight for our nation's future. In one direction lies the Progressive Socialist future, led by the likes of Joe Biden, Nancy Pelosi and Representative Ed Perlmutter; it is the wrong path for our country.

We must change the direction, and 2022 is not a moment too soon. Fortunately, in the other direction is the Shining City on a Hill, of which Reagan spoke and our founders envisioned, putting individual rights and liberty at the forefront. It is the path to prosperity, opportunity and freedom.

I am enthusiastic to announce I will be transitioning from the U.S. Senate race to run in Congressional District 07. This decision was made following an abundance of consideration and the garnering of wise counsel. Though it was a very difficult decision after investing significant time, money and effort into the U.S. Senate race, I am motivated by duty and a desire to be of service, and after much prayer and reflection, this is the clearer path to accomplish that end. I am not running for office to serve my own ends—I'm not a career politician. There is a fight for integrity, accountability, transparency and virtue in the U.S. House of Representatives and this seat represents the primary line of defense against the tide of socialism that we’ve seen under the Biden Administration and Ed Perlmutter.

2022 CO-07 Congressional Campaign

March 2022: Aadland’s Campaign Petition Was Rejected By Colorado Secretary Of State Jena Griswold And Aadland Had To Get Support From The Jefferson County Assembly Process In Order To Qualify For The CO-07 Ballot
March 2022: Colorado Secretary Of State Jena Griswold Rejected Aadland’s Campaign Petition To Qualify For The CO-07 Congressional Primary Ballot. “Secretary of State Jena Griswold has rejected the petition of Republican Erik Aadland to qualify for the state primary ballot in the race for the 7th Congressional District saying he fell short of the required signatures. Of the 1,973 signatures Aadland submitted, Griswold's office rejected 519 cutting him short by six lousy signatures. Ouch. He's taking it in good stride though, shifting gears to go the Republican assembly route in April.” [ColoradoPeakPolitics, 3/16/22]

- March 2022: Aadland Sued The Colorado Secretary Of State And Alleged That He Had Enough Valid Signatures To Be On The Republican Primary Ballot For CO-07. “On March 21, Republican congressional candidate Erik Aadland sued the Secretary of State in state court, alleging that he does have enough valid signatures to be on the Republican primary ballot for U.S. House, 7th district. See this story[1]. The Secretary of State's office had determined that he was short 46 signatures.” [Ballot Access News, 3/22/22]

- On His Claim That The Colorado Secretary Of State Unjustly Invalidated His Ballot Petition For Congress, Aadland Was Accused Of Not Actually Having Evidence For That Claim. “[14:22] I can give you my own example with the Secretary of State. I can prove that legitimate signatures on my petitions were invalidated by that office which could potentially deny me access to the ballot and affect the outcome of the election. Was there fraud? I don’t know. Was there bureaucratic incompetence? I don’t know. I don’t know what happened behind closed doors in the Secretary of State’s Office.’ George: ‘But what you are willing to commit to Erik is ‘I know for a fact that the outcome that she’s determined is wrong. And I’m willing to say it’s wrong. I don’t know why it’s wrong. Can’t say it's fraud, can’t say it’s incompetence. But it’s absolutely wrong. […] You’re actually definitive on it.’ Aadland: ‘Because I can prove it. Because I’m involved in the process and because I can prove it. […] I am pulling information from the media and from other sources and I’m trying to make my best guess.” [George Show, 4/7/22] (AUDIO)

- March 2022: After Failing To Qualify For The CO-7 Ballot Through Petition, Aadland Attempted To Secure Votes Through “The Assembly Process” Instead. “True.
